

Faculty Newsnotes

January 27, 2003
Edited by Stacy Miller

Issue #355

Provost Office

Phased Retirement Deadline

Anyone interested in the Phased Retirement option beginning in 2004-2005 must apply by March 31, 2003. Please refer to your Policies and Procedures Handbook for the procedures.

Financial Aid Statistics

Attached to these Newsnotes are Financial Aid statistics with the current year estimated.

Intersession Enrollment

Listed below are this year's budgeted and actual Intersession units with the last two years' figures for comparison.

| | Budgeted | Actual |
|------|-----------------|---------------|
| 2003 | 2475 | 2871 |
| 2002 | 2475 | 3091 |
| 2001 | 2475 | 2794 |

Academic Publications

Faculty Newsnotes Publication Dates and Deadlines

Listed below are the dates of publication for 2002-2003 Faculty Newsnotes. Please direct all entries to Stacy Miller, Director of Academic Publications, Founders Hall 108, or e-mail to stacyc@SanDiego.edu.

| Publication Date | Submission Deadline |
|-------------------------|----------------------------|
| February 24, 2003 | February 14, 2003 |
| March 24, 2003 | March 14, 2003 |
| April 28, 2003 | April 18, 2003 |
| May 5, 2003 | April 30, 2003 |

Social Issues Committee

Dr. Howard Zinn and Father Roy Bourgeois come to USD

USD's Social Issues Committee invites you to the 14th Annual Social Issues Conference on April 3-4, 2003. This year's theme is "Freedom in America? War, Peace, and Justice" and will be held at the University Center. The Dr. Judy Rauner Lecture begins Thursday with a keynote address by Dr. Howard Zinn. His classic work, "A People's History of the United States," is a widely used college and university text. Friday will include workshops and a luncheon discussion with Father Roy Bourgeois, founder of the School of the Americas (SOA) Watch. The lectures and workshops are free and you are encouraged to bring students, colleagues, and friends. The luncheon is $10. Brochures and registration forms will be available soon. For more information call (619)260-4798 or visit www.sandiego.edu/csl/sic/sic.shtml.

Sponsored Programs

The University received a grant in the amount of $9,000 from The Northrop Grumman Litton Foundation to support Dr. Marie Simovich's work to develop science teaching projects using the Smartboard technology for classroom application.

Student Affairs

Women's Center

The Women's Center has planned an event entitled "Does Your Mother Know You're Wearing That?: The Relationship Between Fashion, Media and Body Image." This panel discussion will take place on Wednesday, April 23 at 5:00 p.m. The Women's Center is looking for professors who can discuss this topic and relate it to the USD population. Please call Amber Picou at ext. 2396 if you are interested.

Congratulations to the 2002 USD Women of Impact: Ms. Stephani Richards-Wilson, School of Business Administration; Dr. Carmen Barcena, School of Business Administration; and Ms. Aisha Taylor, Associated Students. Each Woman of Impact was nominated by her peers and/or students. All nominees were honored for their contribution to the USD community at a luncheon on December 6, 2002. The event is held annually and is sponsored by the USD Women's Center.

Faculty and Staff Dining

Don't miss this semester's Chef Specialty Bars prepared fresh for you by the award-winning Dining Services team:

| | |
|-------------|---------------|
| February 13 | Caesar Salad |
| February 27 | Asian Sauté |
| March 20 | Barbecue |
| April 3 | Sushi |
| April 17 | Seafood Pasta |
| May 1 | Lobster |

Lunch is served Monday through Friday between 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. in the Faculty and Staff Dining Room. Visit the Web site at: <http://dining.sandiego.edu>.

Varia

Larry A. Alexander, School of Law, was a presenter on "Judicial Review" at the University of North Carolina Workshop in Law and Philosophy, National Humanities Center, North Carolina, October 18-20, 2002.

Professor Alexander was an organizer, moderator, and participant at the Conference on Legal Transitions, hosted by the School of Law, Institute for Law and Philosophy, and the Journal of Contemporary Legal Issues, October 24-26, 2002, at USD.

Professor Alexander was a participant in the "Roundtable on Responsibility" at the University of Illinois College of Law, December 6-7, 2002.

Susan Benson, Director of Career Services in the School of Law, was a panelist on Career Services Issues in the program "Globetrotters: International implications of Today's J.D. and LL.M. Student," sponsored by the Section on Student Services at the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools on January 4 in Washington, D.C.

Laura M. Berend, School of Law, was organizer and a participant of "Sentencing and Beyond," an all-day seminar examining sentencing issues and alternatives sponsored by the USD School of Law with the support of Community Defenders, Inc., on January 25 at USD.

Roy L. Brooks, School of Law, was a speaker on the panel, "Slavery Reparations – Restitution to Right an Ancient Wrong?" sponsored by the Section on Remedies at the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools on January 4 in Washington, D.C. Professor Brooks presented an overview of the movement for reparations, focusing on two approaches: legislation and litigation.

Professor Brooks delivered a paper at the Institute for Interdisciplinary Studies at the University of Memphis on November 1, 2002.

Professor Brooks participated in a debate at Colby College in Waterville, Maine, on November 3, 2002.

Professor Brooks also published "Recounting Election 2000: The Use of Policy in Judicial Reasoning: A Reconceptualization Before and After Bush v. Gore," 13 Stan. Law & Policy Review 33 (2002).

Paula Cordeiro, School of Education, is featured in San Diego Magazine's "50 people to watch in 2003." The 50 honorees are included "because they've already shown spark or previewed potential."

Dr. Cordeiro was also honored at the Holiday Bowl as a community leader "who exemplifies the Union-Tribune commitment to support youth, family, and literacy causes in our region." Dr. Cordeiro has been the President of the San Diego Council for Literacy for the past two years.

Lynne L. Dallas, School of Law, participated in "Teaching Socio-Economic Perspectives on Globalization," a program hosted by the Section of Socio-Economics at the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools, on January 3 in Washington, D.C. Professor Dallas was a member of the following panels: "Courses in Law and Socio-Economics," "Teaching Micro-Economics from a Socio-Economics Perspective," and "The Future of Economics."

Professor Dallas also served as a panelist on "Teaching Law and Economics," sponsored by the Section on Law and Economics at the Annual Meeting of the AALS, on January 5 in Washington, D.C.

Ed DeRoche, School of Education, was recognized by The San Diego Union-Tribune Newspaper-in-Education Department as their "outstanding educator of the year." The award was presented at the Holiday Bowl game on December 27th.

Dayanne Douglas, Senior Resident Director and doctoral student in the School of Education, presented at the December NASPA (National Association of Student Personnel Administrators) "Spirituality on Campus Reflection and Practice" conference. The title of the panel presentation was "Vocation: Implications for Character and Career Development."

LJ Hartig, Resident Director for Camino/Founders, has been selected as the recipient for the Advancement of Global Dimensions Research Award from The American College Personnel Association (ACPA). The award will be presented at the ACPA national convention in March.

Steve Hartwell, School of Law, published the article "Classes and Collections: How Clinicians Feel Differently," 9 Clinical Law Review 463 (2002).

Jean Montoya, School of Law, is the Corresponding Secretary of the Executive Committee, Evidence Section, of the Association of American Law Schools. She has also been appointed to the Board of Directors for Appellate Defender's, Inc. and Federal Defenders, Inc. of San Diego. In addition, Professor Montoya serves as an editorial board member of Psychology, Public Policy, and Law, a peer-reviewed journal of the American Psychological Association.

Professor Montoya and Laura Berend, School of Law, are co-authors of Criminal Litigation in Action (including a Teacher's Manual), published by the National Institute of Trial Advocacy, 2002.

Dan Moriarty, Psychology Department, was co-author of two papers presented at the November Defenders of Wildlife's Carnivores 2002 Conference in Monterey, California. The papers were "Mexican Wolves: Status Report and Challenges Facing the Captive-Breeding Program" and "Effectiveness of a Fladry Barrier in Captive Wolves." The latter paper was co-authored with several USD students.

Ben Nyce, English Department, will publish Scorsese Up Close, his book-length study of Martin Scorsese's films, in Scarecrow Press filmmakers series edited by Anthony Slide in mid 2003. Dr. Nyce will be fully retired by then.

Rodney Peffer, Philosophy Department, published "World Hunger, Moral Theory, and Radical Rawlsianism," forthcoming, Contemporary Moral Issues, Mark Evans (ed.), University of Edinburgh Press, 2003.

Dr. Peffer gave the following presentations: "The Ethical Implications and Limitations of Markets," Law and Socioeconomics session, American Association of Law Schools Annual Conference, New Orleans, Louisiana, January, 2002; "On Nozick's Repudiation of Liberalism," Institute of Philosophy, Havana, June, 2002.

Dr. Peffer will be visiting professor of philosophy at St. Clare's College, Oxford University, Spring semester, 2003.

Dr. Peffer will give the following presentations in August, 2003: "World Hunger and Moral Theory," Political Philosophy Section, XXIst World Congress of Philosophy, and "Cosmopolitan Justice: A Rawlsian Approach," Roundtable on Global Justice, XXIst World Congress of Philosophy, Istanbul.

Dr. Peffer will be an organizer and participant in the roundtable "World Hunger and Morality," XXIst World Congress of Philosophy, Istanbul, August, 2003.

Saikrishna B. Prakash, School of Law, was a speaker on the panel "Presidential Power and Congressional Delegation," sponsored by the Section on Administrative Law at the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools, on January 5 in Washington, D.C.

Daniel B. Rodriguez, School of Law, was a panelist for "Huis Clos: Through the Eyes of Others," hosted by the Section for the Law School Dean at the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools, on January 4 in Washington, D.C.

Dean Rodriguez was also a member of "The Future of Economics" panel hosted by the Section of Socio-Economics at the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools on January 3 in Washington, DC.

Emily L. Sherwin, School of Law, was a speaker on the panel "Slavery Reparations – Restitution to Right an Ancient Wrong?" sponsored by the Section on Remedies at the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools on January 4 in Washington, D.C. Professor Sherwin discussed the place of reparations in the doctrinal matrix of developing United States restitution law.

Lester B. Snyder, School of Law, was an organizer, moderator, and participant at the Conference on Legal Transitions, hosted by the School of Law, Institute for Law and Philosophy, and the Journal of Contemporary Legal Issues, October 24-26, 2002, at USD.

Mary Jo Wiggins, School of Law, recently published: "Race, Class, and Suburbia: The Modern Black Suburb as a Race-Making Situation" in the University of Michigan Journal of Law Reform.

Professor Wiggins has been asked to contribute two chapters to Collier on Bankruptcy, the leading scholarly treatise in the field of Bankruptcy.

Professor Wiggins presented a talk on "Recent Developments in Real Property" to the Real Property Law Section of the State Bar of California.

Professor Wiggins also presented a talk on "The Social, Political and Economic Implications of the Mega-Bankruptcies" to the Ivy League Club of San Diego.

Fred C. Zacharias, School of Law, presented "The Role of Lawyers in Enron-related Events" at a symposium at USD titled "Legal Practice after Enron and WorldCom" in October, 2002.

Professor Zacharias published "Five Lessons for Practicing Law In the Interests of Justice," 70 Fordham L. Rev. 1939 (2002).
