

Criteria: Alumni Association Awards

MOTHER ROSALIE CLIFTON HILL AWARD

The Mother Rosalie Clifton Hill Award is presented annually to an alumnus of the University of San Diego in recognition of extraordinary service and commitment to the University.

The recipient of this award is an alumnus who

- 1) embodies the mission and values of the University of San Diego
- 2) exhibits extraordinary service and commitment to the University
- 3) supports and is actively engaged with the University and/or the University of San Diego Alumni Association
- 4) maintains a continuous relationship with the University.

Eligibility

All Alumni of the University of San Diego are eligible to receive the Mother Rosalie Clifton Hill Award except current members of the faculty, staff, administration, Board of Trustees, Alumni Association Directors, Alumni Honors Recognition Committee and elected officials currently serving office who are not eligible.

Selection

The Alumni Honors Recognition Committee of the University of San Diego Alumni Association reviews all nominations and provides a recommendation to the President and Executive Council for confirmation.

BISHOP CHARLES FRANCIS BUDDY AWARD

The Bishop Charles Francis Buddy Award is presented annually to an alumnus of the University of San Diego in recognition of extraordinary and commitment to humanitarian causes.

The recipient of this award is an alumnus who

- 1) embodies the mission and values of the University of San Diego
- 2) exhibits extraordinary contribution and commitment to humanitarian causes
- 3) promotes human welfare, rights and dignity
- 4) advocates peace, justice and freedom.

Eligibility

All Alumni of the University of San Diego are eligible to receive the Bishop Charles Francis Buddy Award except current members of the faculty, staff, administration, Board of Trustees, Alumni Association Directors, Alumni Honors Recognition Committee and elected officials currently serving office who are not eligible.

Selection

The Alumni Honors Recognition Committee of the University of San Diego Alumni Association reviews all nominations and provides a recommendation to the President and Executive Council for confirmation.