

BUSINESS ECONOMICS MAJOR

Lower-Division Preparation for the Major (22-23 Units)

<input type="checkbox"/> ACCT 201	Principles of Financial Accounting
<input type="checkbox"/> ACCT 202	Principles of Managerial Accounting
<input type="checkbox"/> ECON 101	Principles of Microeconomics
<input type="checkbox"/> ECON 102	Principles of Macroeconomics
<input type="checkbox"/> ECON 216	Quantitative Business Analysis
<input type="checkbox"/> ITMG 100	Information Systems
<input type="checkbox"/> MATH 130 or MATH 150	Survey of Calculus or Calculus I

Note: Student must have completed 60 units to take upper-division courses.

Upper-Division Business Requirements for the Major (18 Units) Must average "C"

<input type="checkbox"/> DSCI 303	Operations Management
<input type="checkbox"/> ETLW 302	Business and Society
<input type="checkbox"/> ETLW 311	Business Law I
<input type="checkbox"/> FINA 300	Financial Management
<input type="checkbox"/> MGMT 300	Organizational Behavior
<input type="checkbox"/> MKTG 300	Fundamentals of Marketing

Business Economics Requirements for the Major (21 Units)

Must average "C" with no grade below "C-"

<input type="checkbox"/> ECON 201	Intermediate Microeconomics
<input type="checkbox"/> ECON 202	Intermediate Macroeconomics
<input type="checkbox"/> ECON 370	Applied Econometrics
<input type="checkbox"/> ECON 373	Managerial Economics
<input type="checkbox"/> ECON 490W	Senior Seminar
<input type="checkbox"/> ECON 	Upper-Division Economics Elective
<input type="checkbox"/> ECON 	Upper-Division Economics Elective

Residency Requirements:

The business economics major requires that a minimum of 24 upper-division units in the major be completed at USD, of which 12 units must be in economics.

Revised 070524

Successful completion of the Professional Development Passport Program is also a requirement for graduation for all Business majors.