

Afro-Jews:

A Lecture on Race, Ethnicity & Religion

President's Advisory Board
on Inclusion and Diversity

Sponsored by the Jewish Student Union

UNIVERSITY of SAN DIEGO
ON OUR CAMPUS
Are you up for the challenge?

Thursday April 2, 2009
12:15pm
UC Forum B

In collaboration with the National Association of Ethnic Studies and the University of San Diego, all faculty, administrators, and interested students are invited to attend a luncheon lecture with Lewis Gordon, Ph.D.

Lewis Gordon is a Professor of Philosophy, Religion, and Jewish Studies at Temple University. His lecture will address the meaning of religious diversity and the ways that communities of color have been left out of depictions of the Jewish Community.

To RSVP for lunch email marciav07@gmail.com

For more information contact the Program for Ethnic Studies at (619) 260-4022.