Ignored Scriptures:
Discerning and Proclaiming the Word
A Reflection for Lectors, Bible Study Groups, and the Inquisitive with Reverend Canon Jack Lindquist

A time to reflect on liturgical readings as significant and central experiences of liturgy. This event seeks to affirm how the ministry of proclaiming the Word can move ‘ignored’ biblical readings to a heightened and new understanding for the Church. Come and unfold your gifts for proclaiming the Word.

Reverend Canon Jack Lindquist is a dynamic and entertaining speaker. He is the Canon for Biblical Studies at St. Paul's Episcopal Cathedral. He is also adjunct professor in Theology and Religious Studies at USD.

When: Saturday, November 17, 2012 from 8:30-11:30 a.m.
Where: Solomon Lecture Hall, Bishop Maher Hall, USD.
Fee: $15 per person, includes a light breakfast.

*We are requesting that you have and bring the 2013 Workbook for Lectors, Gospel Readers, and Proclaimers of the Word (ISBN 978-1-56854-975-0 [8 3/8 x 10 7/8, softcover]) Please read pages 1-48.

Contact information: 619-260-4784, email: ccs@sandiego.edu
www.sandiego.edu/ccs

University of San Diego
5998 Alcala Park, Maher 280
San Diego, CA 92110-2492