Just in Time Course Design

Course Revision  Course Learning Outcomes  Core Outcomes
Assessments (Evaluation Criteria)  Program Outcomes  Activities, Assignments, Exams

The fall semester is rapidly approaching and maybe you are in the midst of revising an old course or even designing a new one, or maybe you just want to breathe new life into your old syllabus. Faculty and CEE staff will be on hand to consult with you about any and all aspects of your course design from developing learning outcomes to creating assignments and other assessments to enhance student learning. Please note, you may drop in and out of these sessions as your time allows.

Take advantage of these sessions in August:

- Wednesday, 20th from 2 - 4 pm
- Friday, 22nd from 10 am - 12 pm
- Wednesday, 27th from 10 am - 12 pm

All sessions are in the Copley Library Seminar Room

Adjunct Faculty Welcome & Orientation

All adjunct & part-time faculty, new & continuing, are invited to join us for dinner and networking at this event. You will learn about the founding and mission of USD, employee perks & training opportunities, important policies regarding students and faculty, syllabus essentials, & the liberal arts education at USD. Representatives from several campus resource centers including Human Resources, Academic Technology Services, Student Wellness and many more will be on hand to answer your questions.

USD Just Read 2014-2015 Selection

Stuffed and Starved

by Raj Patel

USD Just Read! encourages literacy and deep dialogue on social themes presented through outstanding literature. The program promotes active learning and reading not only within the USD community but within the San Diego community at large. During the 2014-2015 academic year, the book selection is Stuffed and Starved, written by Raj Patel.

Various programs are being offered on campus this fall, including a speaking engagement by the author, book discussions, a faculty-led expert panel discussion, and related films. A limited supply of books are available for check out from the Center for Educational Excellence (CEE) and Human Resources.
