CHECK OUT THE CEE'S ONLINE RESOURCES

The Center for Educational Excellence has a course in Blackboard that houses many multimedia resources for faculty. You can access our collection of Magna Publication's 20-minute mentor DVDs on topics such as:

- How Can I Learn Student Names?
- How Do I Get More Students to Participate?
- How Do I Get Students to Read Their Assignments Before Class?
- How Should I Respond to Wrong (or Not Very Good) Answers?

Recent webinars we've co-sponsored can be found in the course. Many faculty have already been added to the course, and ALL faculty are invited to enroll in the course. If you do not already have access to the course, contact the CEE at x7402 or email cee@sandiego.edu and we will enroll you.

Additionally, we always provide an archive of our events including copies of the presenters' notes and handouts; recently, we have posted videos of several of our events. Visit <http://www.sandiego.edu/cee/events/archives11-12.php> to see the event archives.
