REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Board of Trustees
University of San Diego

Report on Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the University of San Diego, which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

MOSS ADAMS_{LLP}

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the University of San Diego as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, and the changes in its net assets and cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Note 1 – Nature of Operation and Significant Accounting Policies

The University of San Diego (the “University”) is an independent Catholic university chartered in 1949 under the nonprofit public benefit corporation law and is governed by its Board of Trustees (the “Board”). In 1972, the San Diego College for Women merged with the University of San Diego College for Men forming the University. The University includes a College of Arts and Sciences and six professional schools: the School of Business Administration; the Shiley-Marcos School of Engineering; the School of Leadership and Education Sciences; the School of Law; the Philip Y. Hahn School of Nursing and Health Science; and the Joan B. Kroc School of Peace Studies.

Financial statement presentation – The University classifies its net assets as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted based upon the following criteria:

- Unrestricted net assets represent expendable funds available for operations that are not otherwise limited by donor restrictions.
- Temporarily restricted net assets consist of contributed funds subject to specific donor-imposed restrictions, which are contingent upon a specific performance of a future event or a specific passage of time before the University may spend the funds.
- Permanently restricted net assets are subject to irrevocable donor restrictions requiring that the assets be maintained in perpetuity, primarily for generating investment income to fund current operations.

Revenue recognition

- Tuition and fees – Student tuition and fees are recorded as revenue in the year during which the related academic services are rendered. Student tuition and fees received in advance of services to be rendered are recorded as deferred tuition revenue.
- Contributions – Contributions of cash, unconditional pledges, and other assets are recorded as revenue in the period received and are classified as permanently restricted, temporarily restricted, or unrestricted based on donor stipulations. Contributions whose restrictions are met in the same period they are received are recorded as revenue in temporarily restricted net assets and as net assets released from restrictions. Unconditional pledges with terms greater than one year are initially recorded at fair value based on their estimated future cash flows. Conditional promises to give are not recognized until they become unconditional, that is, when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Gifts of assets other than cash are recorded at their estimated fair value.
- Grants and contracts – Revenues from grants and contracts are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets as allowable expenditures under such agreements are incurred.
- Sales and services of auxiliary enterprises – Revenues from supporting services, such as student housing, dining facilities, and the bookstore, are recorded at the time of delivery of a product or service. Amounts received in advance of services to be rendered are recorded as deferred revenue.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 – Nature of Operation and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Operating activities – Operating revenue and expenses consist of those items attributable to the University's academic programs, research conducted by the academic departments, and auxiliary operations. The amount computed under the endowment spending policy of the investment pool and all investment income earned by investing cash in excess of daily requirements are used to support current operations. Contribution revenues with restrictions for long-lived assets are recorded under non-operating activities.

Cash and cash equivalents – The University considers liquid investments, which fund the daily operating activities of the University and have a maturity of three months or less at the date of purchase, to be cash equivalents. The University is required to keep separate bank accounts for certain funding received including the Perkins Student Loan Fund Program. Balances in these accounts totaled approximately $1,691,000 and $1,311,000 as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Concentration of credit risk – Financial instruments that potentially subject the University to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash deposits at financial institutions and investments in marketable securities. At times, balances in the University's cash and investment accounts exceed Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") or Securities Investors Protection Corporation ("SIPC") limits.

Student loans and accounts receivables and other receivables are due from a variety of sources concentrated primarily in the western United States. In addition, the University's students receive a substantial amount of support from state and federal student financial assistance programs which are subject to audit by governmental agencies. A significant reduction in the level of this support, if this were to occur, could have an adverse effect on the University's programs and activities.

Accounts and loans receivable – Receivables are recorded net of an allowance for doubtful accounts. The allowance is based on historical experience and management's evaluation of receivables at the end of each year.

Interest rate swap – In conjunction with the University's November 2005 issuance of variable-rate demand revenue bonds, refunded in July 2015 with the issuance of the 2015 variable rate revenue bonds, the University entered into an interest-rate swap agreement with a financial institution counterparty. The purpose of this agreement is to swap the variable rate on underlying debt for a fixed rate of 3.513 percent for a period of 40 years. The University entered into the agreement to manage the risk associated with the cash flows attributable to interest payments on the debt and does not use this instrument for speculative purposes. The instrument's fair value and changes therein are reported in the University's unrestricted net assets. The value of the swap instrument represents the estimated receivable of or payable by the University to cancel the agreement at the reporting date, which is based on option pricing models that consider risks and market factors. See Note 10.

The unrealized losses for the change in the swap agreement's fair value were approximately $13,684,000 and $3,606,000 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The value of the swap instrument is a payable of approximately $38,477,000 and $24,793,000 recorded in other liabilities at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Note 1 – Nature of Operation and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Refundable advances – The University serves as an agent for the federal government in administering the Perkins Student Loan Fund Program and the Nursing Faculty Loan Program. Amounts received in conjunction with these programs are recorded as refundable advances in the statements of financial position. Disbursements made to students in accordance with the federal program requirements are recorded as student loans receivable. Included in accounts and loans receivable at June 30, 2016 and 2015 are student loans receivable of approximately $15,156,000 and $15,203,000, respectively, related to these programs.

Functional expense classifications – Expenses, including certain allocated expenses, are reported in major categories: educational programs, research, athletics and recreation, public service, auxiliary enterprise expenses, and management and general expenses. Auxiliary enterprises include, among others, student residence and board, food services, and the bookstore.

Management and general expenses consist of general institutional support including expenses for fundraising. The University incurred fundraising expenses in the amount of approximately $8,320,000 during the year ended June 30, 2016, including approximately $5,887,000 in personnel expenses and approximately $2,433,000 in other expenses. The University incurred fundraising expenses in the amount of approximately $7,750,000 during the year ended June 30, 2015, including approximately $5,847,000 in personnel expenses and approximately $1,903,000 in other expenses. These expenses were incurred to support campaigns promoting charitable contributions including gifts directed toward the University's endowment and capital projects.

Earnings on permanently restricted endowments – Assets of the University's individual endowment funds (the "Funds") are generally maintained in pooled investment portfolios. Interest, dividends, and gains and losses in the investment pool are allocated on a monthly-average basis to the Funds in proportion to each Fund's relative share in the investment pool, and are recorded in the Fund which is authorized to expend the earnings. The earnings on permanently restricted endowments are primarily recorded as temporarily restricted, in accordance with donor stipulations. In certain unique situations, a Fund's earnings may be recorded as permanently restricted or unrestricted, in accordance with donor stipulations. Accumulated unspent earnings are reinvested and retained in the Funds to protect them against inflation over the long term.

Expiration of donor-imposed restrictions – The expiration of a donor-imposed restriction on net assets is recognized in the period in which the restriction expires and at the time the related resources are reclassified to unrestricted net assets. Net assets are released from donor restrictions by incurring expenses satisfying the restricted purposes, by occurrences of events specified by the donors, or by the change of restrictions specified by the donors. Restrictions on gifts of cash or other assets received for the acquisition of long-lived assets are released when the long-lived assets are placed into service.

Note 1 – Nature of Operation and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Fair value of financial instruments – Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The University classifies certain of its assets and liabilities based upon established fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the University has the ability to access at the measurement date;

Level 2 - Valuations based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly; and

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement.

Additionally, the University adopted the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2015-07, Disclosures for Investment in Certain Entities That Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or Its Equivalent), during the year ended June 30, 2016. Under the new guidance, investments measured using the net asset value per share (or its equivalent) practical expedient are not classified in the fair value hierarchy. The following describes these investments:

Assets held at Net Asset Value ("NAV") – Valuations based on fair value using the NAV per share (or its equivalent) of such investment funds as a practical expedient for fair value. The University has estimated the fair value of these funds by using the NAV provided by the fund's managers.

A financial instrument's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The categorization of assets and liabilities within the hierarchy is based upon the pricing transparency and does not necessarily correspond to the University's perceived risk of the assets and liabilities.

The University has various processes and controls in place to ensure that fair value is reasonably estimated. The Finance Office, under supervision of the Vice President for Finance and Chief Financial Officer, sets the valuation policies and is responsible for the determination of fair value. Securities classified within Level 3 investments are based on valuations provided by external investment managers. The Investment Committee, in conjunction with the external investment advisors, monitors and analyzes the valuations of the investments four times during the academic year. The Investment Committee reports to the Board of Trustees. The valuations consider variables such as financial performance of the investment, recent sales prices of investments, and other pertinent information.

Although the University uses its best judgment in determining the fair value of financial instruments, there are inherent limitations in any methodology. Future confirming events could affect the estimates of fair value and could be material to the financial statements. These events could also affect the amount realized upon liquidation of the instruments.

Investments, in general, are subject to various risks including credit, interest, and overall market volatility risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in values of investment securities will occur in the near term and such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

Use of estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (“GAAP”) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income taxes – The University is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”) and Section 23701(d) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.

The University has no unrecognized tax benefits or liabilities as of June 30, 2016 and 2015. The University files an exempt organization return and applicable unrelated business income tax return in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and with the California Franchise Tax Board.

Recently issued accounting standards – In April 2015, FASB issued ASU 2015-07, Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820): Disclosure for Investments in Certain Entities that Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or Its Equivalent). The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2016, with earlier application permitted. The amendments remove the requirement to categorize within the fair value hierarchy all investments for which fair value is measured using the net asset value per share practical expedient (“NAV”). During the year ended June 30, 2016, the University adopted this standard and the changes have been applied retrospectively and prior year disclosures have been revised accordingly.

In February 2016, FASB issued ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). This guidance requires the recognition of rights and obligations arising from lease contracts, including existing and new arrangements, as assets and liabilities on the statement of financial position. The guidance is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018. Management is currently evaluating the impact this will have on the University’s future financial statements.

In August 2016, FASB issued ASU 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statement for Not-for-Profit Entities. This guidance revises the not-for-profit reporting model. The guidance streamlines and clarifies net asset reporting, provides flexibility regarding the definition of reported operating subtotals, and imposes new reporting requirements related to expenses. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017. Management is currently evaluating the impact this will have on the University’s future financial statements.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 2 - Investments

Investments are reported at their fair values. The University follows a spending rule for its endowment funds, which provides for regular increases in spending while preserving the long-term purchasing power of the endowment. Earnings available for spending are shown in operating income, and the balance as non-operating income.

The University pools certain investments from the various net asset categories. Interest, dividends, and gains and losses in the investment pool are all distributed to the appropriate net asset category. Distributions are based upon the carrying value of the various net asset categories' assets when pooled; adjusted for purchases or gifts specifically identified to a given net asset category.

Investments consist of the following at June 30 (in thousands):

Note 3 – Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The University uses the following methods and assumptions to estimate the fair value for its assets and liabilities measured and carried at fair value in the financial statements:

Fixed-income securities – Investments in fixed-income securities are comprised of U.S. Treasury notes, mortgage-backed securities, municipal and corporate bonds, as well as global investment-grade debt securities denominated primarily in developed countries around the world. Fair value is based on quoted market prices for those traded with sufficient frequency.

Equities funds – Investments in equities funds include investments in securities traded in active markets for which closing prices are readily available. Investments in equities funds also include investments in index funds, which fair values may be based on the NAV of the fund.

Real estate – Investment in real estate includes various residential and commercial properties in San Diego, California. The University has estimated the real estate’s fair value by using market comparables and third-party appraisals.

Note 3 – Fair Value of Financial Instruments (continued)

Real asset funds – Investments in real asset funds include funds, and funds of funds, which invest in various real assets. Fair value is based on quoted market prices for those traded on active markets. Several of these investments are either funds not actively traded in a public market or investments in limited partnerships, in which fair value is determined by the NAV of the funds as determined in good faith by the fund manager or general partner using NAV practical expedient.

Alternative investments – Investments in alternatives include funds of funds, hedge funds, and private equity funds for which no active market exists. The University has estimated the investments' fair value by using the NAV provided by the funds' managers.

The University generally records alternative investments at NAV provided by the fund's managers, as the managers have the greatest insight into the investments of their fund and the related industry. The University assesses the NAV and takes into consideration events such as suspended redemptions, imposition of gates, restructuring, secondary sales, and investor defaults to determine if an adjustment is necessary. Additionally, asset holdings are reviewed within the investment manager's audited financial statements, as are interim financial statements and fund manager communications, for purposes of assessing valuation. The University's determination of fair value is based upon the best available information provided by the investment manager and may incorporate management assumptions and best estimates after considering a variety of internal and external factors. Such value generally represents the University's proportionate share of the partner's capital of the investment partnerships as reported by their general partners. For these investments, the University has determined, through its monitoring activities, to rely on the fair value as determined by the investment managers.

Beneficial interest in trust held by third parties – The University's beneficial interest in trust assets are valued at fair value using the quoted market prices of the underlying securities and discounted when appropriate. If a quoted market price is not available, fair value is determined using the net present value of future distributions the University expects to receive over the term of the agreements. See Note 5.

Interest-rate swap agreement – The fair value of the interest-rate swap agreement is the estimated amount the University would receive or pay to terminate the agreement at the reporting date, taking into consideration the current interest rates and creditworthiness of counterparties.

Note 4 – Accounts and Loans Receivable

The following is a summary of receivables at June 30 (in thousands):

	2016	2015
Student loans receivable	$ 38,651	$ 38,963
Other receivables	7,180	5,614
Student accounts receivable for tuition and fees	6,151	6,333
	51,982	50,910
Less allowance for doubtful accounts	(6,352)	(5,600)
Total	$ 45,630	$ 45,310

The University's student loans receivable consist of institutional and federally-sponsored loans due from both current and former students. Student loans and allowance for student loan doubtful accounts at June 30 are as follows (in thousands):

Institutional loans	$ 23,495	$ 23,760
Federally-sponsored loans	15,156	15,203
	38,651	38,963
Less allowance for doubtful accounts	(5,972)	(5,209)
Total	$ 32,679	$ 33,754

Institutional loans are funded by donor funds restricted for student loan purposes. Federally-sponsored loans are funded by advances to the University primarily under the Federal Perkins Loan Program (the "Program"). Loans to students under the Program are subject to mandatory interest rates and significant restrictions, and loans issued under the Program can be assigned to the federal government in certain non-repayment situations. In these situations, the federal portion of the loan balance is guaranteed.

Amounts received under the Program are ultimately refundable to the federal government in the event the University no longer participates in the Program and accordingly, have been reported as refundable advances in the statements of financial position.

The University provides home mortgage financing assistance to certain faculty. Notes receivable amounting to approximately $2,103,000 and $1,341,000 were outstanding at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively, and are collateralized by deeds of trust on properties concentrated in the region surrounding the University. No allowance for doubtful accounts has been recorded against these loans based on their collateralization and nature of the loans as forgivable. So long as there is no event of default as described in the promissory note, loans are forgiven over a five-year period. These amounts are included in other receivables in the summary of receivables tables above.

Note 5 - Contributions Receivable

Contributions receivable are expected to be received in the following periods at June 30 (in thousands):

	2016	2015
Unconditional pledges:
Less than one year	$ 3,155	$ 3,797
One to five years	3,750	3,650
More than five years	34,041	37,503
	40,946	44,950
Less present value discount (1.8 percent at June 30, 2016 and 2.0 percent at June 30, 2015)	(7,749)	(9,240)
Less allowance for uncollectibility	(10,709)	(11,211)
Net pledges receivable	22,488	24,499
Split-interest agreements - more than five years	5,398	5,897
Total	$ 27,886	$ 30,396

At June 30, 2016 and 2015, an outstanding pledge from the same donor represented 35 percent and 32 percent, respectively, of the University's gross pledges receivable.

Split-interest agreements are comprised of unitrusts and charitable gift annuities. The Finance Office, under the supervision of the Vice President for Finance and Chief Financial Officer, determines the fair value measurement policies and procedures for split-interest agreements. These policies and procedures are reassessed annually to determine if the current valuation techniques are still appropriate. At that time, the unobservable inputs used in the fair value measures are evaluated and adjusted, as necessary, based on current market conditions and other third-party information.

Type	(In Thousands) Fair Value at June 30, 2016	Valuation Technique	Significant Unobservable Inputs	Range of Input Value
Beneficial interests in trust held by third parties	$ 5,398	Discounted Cash Flow	Discount Rate Life Expectancy	1.80% 5 to 35 years

To determine the fair value of unitrust assets, the University determines net present value using a discount percentage and donor data. For charitable gift annuities, the assets are recorded at fair value and a liability is then recorded for the amount of the annuity payments based on the life of the donor. A decrease in the discount rate, a shorter life expectancy, and an increase in the fair value of the underlying assets will increase the recorded fair value of the unitrust; this change in fair value is recorded into revenue for the given year.

Note 6 – Property, Plant, and Equipment

Property, plant, and equipment consist of the following at June 30 (in thousands):

	2016	2015
Land and improvements	$ 51,028	$ 51,028
Buildings and improvements	535,713	495,413
Furniture, equipment, and capital leases	15,571	22,242
Library resources	52,121	51,447
Construction in progress	11,887	31,450
	666,320	651,580
Less accumulated depreciation	(172,411)	(164,875)
	493,909	486,705
Art collection	4,062	4,062
	4,062	4,062
Total	$ 497,971	$ 490,767

Property, plant, and equipment are stated at cost if purchased, or fair value at the date of donation, and are depreciated on a straight-line basis over their appropriate estimated useful lives. The estimated useful lives by asset type are 50 years for buildings; 40 years for building improvements and library resources; 7 years for furniture, equipment, and technology upgrades; and 3 years for capital lease assets. Depreciation expense totaled approximately $15,828,000 and $15,921,000 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

The art collection consists of various pieces of donated and purchased artwork, antique furniture, and artifacts whose value is expected to increase over time and, therefore, is not depreciated.

Note 7 – Employee Benefits

The University has a retirement healthcare program that pays a specified fixed amount to supplement the medical insurance payments made by retirees of the University. The University has internally designated specific investments toward covering this obligation.

The following table sets forth the amount of obligation and assets as of June 30 (in thousands):

Fair value of designated assets	$ 3,995	$ 3,868
Post-retirement benefit obligation	3,995	3,868
Over funded	$ -	$ -

The designated assets are included in short-term investments and the benefit obligation is included in accounts payable and accrued expenses in the statements of financial position.

Note 7 – Employee Benefits (continued)

The following table sets forth benefit costs and benefits paid (in thousands):

	2016	2015
Benefit costs	$ 42	$ 39
Benefit payments	140	149
Contributions	127	168
Weighted-average assumptions:
Discount rate	5.0%	5.0%
Expected return on plan assets	8.0%	8.0%

The University uses an actuarial measurement date of June 30 to determine benefit measurements as of the same date of the current year. The discount rate is the estimated rate at which the obligation for benefits could effectively be settled. The expected return on plan assets reflects the average rate of earnings that the University estimates will be generated on the assets of the plans.

The University has a defined-contribution retirement plan (the “Plan”) which covers all benefit-eligible employees. For the participating employees, the University contributes 12 percent of the employees’ eligible compensation to the Plan. Both the employee and University contributions are employee-directed into various funding vehicles as provided by the plan sponsor. The University’s related expense was approximately $16,030,000 and $15,028,000 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Note 8 – Lines of Credit

The University has a variable rate line of credit at a bank with a maximum borrowing limit of $10,000,000; of which $2,046,000 of the line has been earmarked for letters of credit related to insurance policies. The renewable line of credit is effective through February 1, 2017 and may be used for working capital purposes. There were no borrowings under this line at June 30, 2016 or 2015.

In 2010, the University obtained a line of credit for funding of a major campus sustainability project. The University converted the balance into a ten-year term loan effective September 30, 2010. The outstanding balance as of June 30, 2016 and 2015 was approximately $4,126,000 and $4,951,000, respectively, and is included in other liabilities in the statements of financial position.

The following table sets forth the University’s payment requirements as of June 30, 2016 on the term loan for each of the next five years and thereafter (in thousands):

Years ending June 30,

Note 9 - Lease Commitments

The University leases various types of equipment under leases that qualify as capital leases. The gross amount of equipment recorded as capital leases was approximately $2,097,000 and $2,832,000 at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Accumulated amortization for equipment recorded under capital leases was approximately $1,140,000 and $1,634,000 at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The amortization expense for these capital leases is included within the University's depreciation expense.

The following table sets forth the University's future minimum lease payments as of June 30, 2016 on capital lease obligations (in thousands):

	2016	2015
1999 California Educational Facilities Authority revenue bonds (the "1999 bonds"), comprised of capital appreciation bonds with interest rates varying between 4.45 and 5.16 percent, with interest payable at the time they mature: Capital appreciation bonds, due October 2009 through October 2024	7,139	7,789
	7,139	7,789
Unamortized original issue discount	(37)	(40)
	7,102	7,749
Total bonds payable	$ 161,706	$ 165,034

The 2015, 2012, 2011 A, 2011 B, 2011, and 1999 bonds are secured by the University's full faith and credit. The bond agreements place certain restrictive covenants on the University with which management believes the University has complied. Bond discounts and issuance costs are amortized using the straight-line method over the life of the bonds, which approximates the interest method.

In July 2015, the University issued the 2015 Bonds through the California Municipal Financing Authority ("CMFA") and borrowed $91,750,000 from US Bank under a direct purchase option. The 2015 Bonds mature in October 2045 and were issued for the sole purpose of refunding the 2005 Bonds to achieve future debt service savings. The University recorded a $441,000 loss from this refunding in other unrestricted non-operating changes on the statement of activities during the year ended June 30, 2016.

The estimated fair value of the University's bonds was approximately $181,328,000 and $182,694,000 at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Bonds payable are categorized as Level 2 within the fair value hierarchy discussed in Note 1. For the 2012, 2011 A, 2011 B, 2011, and 1999 bonds, the fair value was derived using estimated market prices on publicly-traded debt. The 2015 bonds are privately placed with a financial institution and management has determined the carrying value as of June 30, 2016 approximates the fair value of these bonds.

The following table sets forth the University's principal payment requirements as of June 30, 2016 on bonds payable for each of the next five years and thereafter (in thousands):

In July 2014, the designation of a donor restricted pledge was changed from permanently restricted to temporarily restricted at the written request of the donor. The University recorded the change of designation in July 2014 for $5,010,000 by reducing permanently restricted net assets available for educational programs and increasing temporary restricted net assets available for educational programs. During the year ended June 30, 2015, the temporarily restricted net assets were released from restriction for investment in property, plant, and equipment.

Note 12 – Endowment

The state of California has adopted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (“UPMIFA”), the provisions of which apply to endowment funds existing or established after the date of adoption. The corpus of the fund subject to UPMIFA is classified as permanently restricted. The corpus represents the fair value of the original gifts as of the gift date and all subsequent gifts where the donor has indicated that the gift must be retained permanently. The value of assets in excess of original gifts in donor-restricted endowment funds is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until appropriated for expenditure by the University.

Spending policy – Spending is based on a total return strategy, which includes both appreciation and income. The University’s spending allowance rate is 4 percent of the trailing three-year average of the endowment’s fair value. The fair value is the sum of the endowment principle and the accumulated realized and unrealized earnings. In accordance with UPMIFA, the Board may expend so much of an endowment fund as the Board determines to be prudent for the uses and purposes for which the endowment fund is established, consistent with the goal of conserving the long-term purchasing power of the endowment fund.

Investment policy – The overall investment goal for the pooled endowment fund (the “Fund”) is three-fold: (1) to provide a relatively predictable, stable, and constant return sufficient to meet the spending needs of the University; (2) to preserve and enhance the real (inflation adjusted) purchasing power of the Fund through active management; and (3) to increase the Fund through unspent income and gains, appreciated value, gifts, and other appropriate funds.

The return objective for the Fund, measured over a full market cycle, shall be inflation plus 5.5 percent, after the payment of all investment-related fees. In addition, the Fund should experience no greater risk (volatility and variability of return) than that of the market; the market being defined as the Fund’s relevant policy benchmarks. It is recognized that the achievement of a long-term, real return in excess of 5.5 percent per year will require a significant allocation to higher returning asset classes. To help moderate the volatility of the portfolio, the Fund will seek to achieve meaningful diversification across asset classes. In addition, the Fund will include significant allocations to asset classes that provide a meaningful hedge against deflation and inflation.

Endowment net assets – The following represents a description of the endowment net asset composition by type of fund as of June 30, 2016 (in thousands):

	2016
	Unrestricted	Temporarily Restricted	Permanently Restricted	Total
Donor-restricted endowment fund	$ (293)	$ 89,754	$ 156,919	$ 246,380

Note 12 - Endowment (continued)

The following represents a description of the endowment net asset composition by type of fund as of June 30, 2015 (in thousands):

	2015			Total
	Unrestricted	Temporarily Restricted	Permanently Restricted
Donor-restricted endowment fund	$ (113)	$ 107,600	$ 153,155	$ 260,642
Board designated/quasi-endowment funds	209,342	-	-	209,342
Total endowment	$ 209,229	$ 107,600	$ 153,155	$ 469,984

As a result of market declines, the fair value of certain donor-restricted endowments was less than the historical cost value of such funds by approximately $293,000 and $113,000 at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. These losses have been recorded as reductions in unrestricted net assets. Future gains will be used to restore this deficiency in unrestricted net assets before any net appreciation above the historical cost value of such funds increases temporarily restricted net assets.

The following represents the changes in endowment net assets for the years ended June 30, 2016 (in thousands):

Note 13 - Commitments and Contingencies

Loan programs – The University participates in certain alternative loan programs. No assets or liabilities are recorded by the University for amounts loaned to students under these programs. The University is contingently liable for a portion of the outstanding loans, and the amount of the contingency was approximately $1,290,000 and $1,318,000 at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Grants and contracts – Federal grant programs are subject to review by the grantor agencies, which could result in requests for reimbursement to grantor agencies for disallowed expenditures. Management believes it has adhered to the terms of its grants, and any disallowed expenditures resulting from such reviews would not have a material effect on the financial position of the University.

Legal – The University is party to certain legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, liabilities, if any, under these actions will not have a material impact on its financial position.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 14 - Subsequent Events

Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the statement of financial position date, but before the financial statements are available to be issued. The University recognizes in the financial statements the effects of all subsequent events that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the statement of financial position, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing the financial statements. The University's financial statements do not recognize subsequent events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the statement of financial position, but arose after the statement of financial position date and before the financial statements are available to be issued.

The University has evaluated subsequent events through October 19, 2016, which is the date the financial statements were available for issuance.
