GENERAL INFORMATION

Financial aid funding for the January 2009 Intercession will normally be limited to unused federal loan eligibility (Federal Stafford, Unsubsidized Federal Stafford, Federal Graduate Plus Loan and/or Federal Parent PLUS). Please note that private Alternative Loans are also available. The loan application for the loan listed on your Financial Aid Award Offer for Intercession lists the steps necessary for processing.

Due to limited funding, USD scholarships and grants, Federal Perkins Loans and USD Trust Loans are not usually available for the 2009 Intercession.

Students with academic year Federal Work-Study awards may be able to work during Intercession. To be eligible you must be enrolled at USD for the Spring semester of 2009 and be given permission to work by both the department in which you work and the Student Employment Center.

SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION EARLY!

PRIORITY DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 1, 2008

STUDENT'S CERTIFICATION

I understand and agree to all of the conditions of this application. In order to receive an Offer of Financial Assistance for the January 2009 Intercession, I understand that:

1. I must be enrolled for January 2009 Intercession at USD, unless applying only to work FWS hours from a Fall/Spring authorization.
2. If I do not enroll for a class at USD or if I drop the class in which I have enrolled at any percent of refund, all or a portion of the financial aid for the class will be cancelled. I also understand that if I drop a class, I must notify the Office of Financial Aid in writing.
