NOTE: If the Credit Authorization on your original Direct Parent PLUS Loan was completed more than 90 days ago, you will need to complete a new Credit Authorization application before this loan request can be processed.

To complete a new Credit Authorization:

- The parent will complete the application for authorization by selecting this link: https://studentloans.gov
- In the “Manage My Direct Loan” box, sign in by selecting the “Sign In” box
  - You the parent, will provide your Social Security Number
  - The First Two Characters of your Last Name
  - Your date of birth (mm/dd/yyyy)
  - Your Federal Student Aid PIN

This process could take an estimated 30 minutes. Since this is the second application, most of your personal information will pre-populate the form.

Update any changes to your information by clicking on the “Edit” box.

If you need to stop, click “Save and Exit” and the information will be saved for you to return at a future time to complete the process.

To continue with the process:

- Select “Request PLUS Loan” in the links on the left column.
- Select “Parent PLUS” link

  Step 1: Request PLUS Loan - enter Personal Information
  Step 2: Student & Loan Information - enter your student’s information, school name & state
  Step 3: Review Application – review personal data for accuracy- check the box that you allow your credit to be reviewed for the loan and submit the data
  Step 4: Credit Check and Submit - credit is checked and you are notified immediately whether you are approved or denied

You will be notified immediately whether you were credit approved.

If you were not credit approved, you will be offered options to apply with an Endorser or appeal the Credit Decision. The U.S. Department of Education will mail you additional information regarding the Endorser option and the Credit Appeal option.
