

Adobe At-Home Use Agreement

In accordance with terms of the Adobe Cumulative Licensing Program (CLP), the University of San Diego is extending to you the right to use the software for school-related purposes at home. This acceptance form is only valid for Adobe software products purchased through the University of San Diego Adobe CLP agreement, which shall be referred to collectively herein as the "Software". Software is made available to you for installation on your home computer or laptop, but only where you are the primary user of a USD owned "on campus" computer system (not shared use) that is licensed for the Software. This request is not to use the Software at home for personal purposes. Furthermore, you do not own the license or the CDs, rather you are authorized to use the Software and associated media pursuant to the terms and conditions of the licensing agreement. You will be required to remove the Software from your home machine immediately upon expiration of the licensed period or earlier if your employment by the University of San Diego (or, in the case of staff and administrators, employment by your department) ends.

A unique Special Product Key will be generated for every eligible license of Adobe Software. The Special Product Key is intended for the sole use of the person to whom it is granted. Holders of these key codes are required to keep their Special Product Keys secure and only show them to their Desktop Support Technician. You will be held responsible for unauthorized use of your unique Adobe Special Product Key.

Note: You will need to apply for an Adobe product license separately if your USD owned "on campus" PC is not already licensed to use the Software.

Please initial each statement:

- I will read and abide by the license agreement associated with this Software.
- I have obtained a license for the Software I am applying for on the first page of this application and that I am the primary user of the associated computer whose asset number is listed above.
- I understand that the Special Product Key is provided for my use only.
- I understand that no technical support is provided by University of San Diego.
- I understand the minimum specifications to run the Software as listed.
- I will remove the Software from my home machine immediately upon the end of my employment by the University of San Diego.
- I understand that I am not licensed to use the Software for personal purposes.
- I understand that I am not permitted to make copies of, loan or distribute Adobe media or license codes.
