Call for Candidates, Nominations and Referrals

Associate Dean for Academic Affairs
The Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing at Case Western Reserve University
Cleveland, Ohio

The Organization
The Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing (FPB) at Case Western Reserve University is a globally-recognized leader in nursing education and research. Its commitment to excellence in research and scholarship, small class sizes, distinguished faculty, global initiatives and other academic innovations poise FPB as a leading institution of nursing education for students at all levels of study. FPB consistently ranks among the top nursing programs in the country (#15 for graduate programs, according to 2011 rankings in U.S. News & World Report). Innovative academic programs include: Bachelor of Science in Nursing; Master of Science in Nursing; Doctor of Nursing Practice; Doctor of Philosophy in Nursing; and Dual Doctorate DNP/PhD. The Opportunity
FPB seeks a visionary nurse leader with demonstrated academic leadership and administrative experience for the position of Associate Dean for Academic Affairs (ADAA). A member of the senior management team, the ADAA will lead and administer the development, implementation and evaluation of outstanding academic programs in the FPB School of Nursing (SON), and is also responsible for student services, learning resource center and faculty development. The ADAA ensures that the programs of instruction are appropriately resourced, provides leadership and oversight to the operations that support the School’s programs of instruction and serves as a role model in innovation, collaboration and consensus-building.

The Candidate
The ideal candidate will possess a doctoral degree in nursing or a related field, with experience equivalent to the rank of full professor. Candidates with the rank of professor on the non-tenure track will also be considered. A strong record in nursing scholarship, as well as demonstrated strength in academic research and teaching is essential. Experience in curricular innovation, evaluation and accreditation is also key. The ability to function as a member of a team both within the SON and across the University with proven ability to develop trust and to build strong, collaborative working relationships with clinical and research faculty is very important.

The Community
Ranked as one of the country’s most livable cities - Cleveland is a mid-sized city that gets high marks for its lively arts and culture scene; low cost of living; and the four seasons climate. FPB is situated in the heart of University Circle, one of the city’s most energetic and culturally robust communities. The Cleveland Cavaliers basketball team, Cleveland Browns football team and Cleveland Indians baseball team all play in venues downtown.
