IRENE SABELBERG PALMER NURSING RESEARCH FUND

PURPOSE OF THE FUND

This fund is created by the Dean Emeritus specifically to assist the completion of the doctoral student’s dissertation. Awards are limited to those activities requisite to the successful completion of the dissertation. Such activities include travel to depositories, archival collections, persons whose oral histories are vital to data collection; support for the statistical analysis of data, the testing of the reliability and validity of instruments; the reproduction of data, i.e.: the photo-duplication of data-collection materials, particularly when distance to data-collection site is prohibitive; the typing, duplication, and binding of the final document.

Priority of consideration is to be given to those students engaged in historical research.

Deadline: April 17, 2017

CRITERIA FOR AWARDS

1. Student is enrolled in PhD in Nursing program at USD.

2. Student has a Dissertation Committee appointed.

3. Student’s dissertation proposal has been successfully presented and accepted by Dissertation Committee.

4. Suggested use of funds carries approval of Dissertation Committee Chairperson.

5. Award to be made only once to student.

6. Award is to be made to the student who demonstrates financial need for the funds. Students who are recipients of federally funded grants, traineeships, on duty under instruction orders are excluded unless the expense of the dissertation is extraordinary. Extraordinary is to be interpreted as requiring extensive travel to depositories, archives, interviewees, etc.
