

UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO
JOAN B. KROC SCHOOL OF PEACE STUDIES

5998 Alcalá Park
San Diego, CA 92110-2492
Ph: (619) 260-7919, Fax: (619) 849-8109
www.sandiego.edu/peacestudies

JOHN PRENDERGAST OFFICE HOURS - KIPJ SUITE 113

Appointments recommended: Call (619) 260-7919

Tuesday	November 11	2:30 pm	– 4:30 pm
Thursday	November 13	10:00 am	– 12:00 pm
Tuesday	November 18	2:30 pm	– 4:30 pm
Thursday	November 20	12:30 pm	– 2:30 pm
Friday	November 21	10:00 am	– 12:00 pm

John Prendergast is Co-Chair of the ENOUGH Project. During the Clinton administration, John was Director of African Affairs at the National Security Council, where he was directly involved in a number of peace processes throughout Africa, including the peace deal between Ethiopia and Eritrea. John also has worked for the State Department, members of Congress, the UN, human rights organizations, and think tanks such as the International Crisis Group and the U.S. Institute of Peace.

He has authored eight books on Africa, the latest of which he co-authored with actor/activist Don Cheadle, entitled "Not on Our Watch," a New York Times bestseller. He also wrote "God, Oil and Country: Changing the Logic of War in Sudan," and "Frontline Diplomacy: Humanitarian Aid and Conflict in Africa." John co-produced the documentary about northern Uganda called "Journey into Sunset." He has been part of three episodes of CBS' 60 Minutes which earned an Emmy Award for Best Continuing News Coverage.

He is helping to spearhead a campaign involving the NBA and Participant Productions to widen awareness on Darfur. He was involved in the making of two recent documentaries, "Darfur Now" and "Sand and Sorrow". John regularly contributes op-ed columns to major newspapers and journals. John travels regularly to Africa's war zones on fact-finding missions, peace-making initiatives, and awareness-raising trips involving network news programs, celebrities, and politicians. He is a visiting professor at the University of San Diego and the American University in Cairo.

The Joan B. Kroc School of Peace Studies is dedicated to advancing the field of peace studies and a world-view of peace as human development. The School nurtures and disseminates interdisciplinary scholarship and advanced practice to educate and prepare peacebuilders. The Joan B. Kroc School of Peace Studies is home to a dialogue and a discipline of scholars and practitioners immersed and educated in peace as philosophy, methodology and creative act.

The Joan B. Kroc School of Peace Studies welcomes the first Joan B. Kroc Peace Scholar again

JOHN PRENDERGAST

Returning and in residence November 10 to 21, 2008

PUBLIC EVENTS at the Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace & Justice

Lecture and Panel Discussion: "RAISE HOPE FOR CONGO"

Book signing to follow: NY Times bestseller, "Not on Our Watch"

Thursday, November 13, 2008 – 6:30pm – KIPJ Peace & Justice Theatre

John Prendergast, Co-Chair of the ENOUGH Project

Lisa Shannon, Creator of Run For Congo Women

Jimmie Briggs, Author of Innocents Lost: When Child Soldiers Go to War and goodwill ambassador for the United Nations

Emmanuelle Chriqui, Actress

Candice Knezevic, Congo campaign manager

Seminars

Tuesday, November 11 – 12:15-2:15 pm – KIPJ 218

I. Peacemaking: how conflicts are resolved in Africa

Wednesday, Nov. 12 – 2:30-4:30 pm – KIPJ Conference Room A

II. Peacekeeping: how the big peacekeeping missions in Africa are failing to protect people

Monday, Nov. 17 – 6:00-8:00 pm – KIPJ Conference Room A

III. Peace with justice: how the International Criminal Court helps or hurts the cause of peace in Africa

Wednesday, Nov. 19 – 5:00-7:00 pm – KIPJ Conference Room D

IV. Building a Peace Movement: how students can help stop genocide and build peace in Africa

Seminar Topics and Reading List

Open to the Public.

Students and friends are invited to attend one or all of the following events.

Please complete the background readings prior to each seminar to facilitate the discussion.

All events held at the Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace & Justice (KIPJ)

Tuesday, Nov. 11 – 12:15-2:15 pm (KIPJ Conference Room 218)

I. Peacemaking: how conflicts are resolved in Africa

1. Prendergast, John. "U.S. Leadership in Resolving African Conflict: The Case of Ethiopia-Eritrea." United States Institute of Peace. September 2001.
<http://www.usip.org/pubs/specialreports/sr74.pdf>
2. Prendergast, John and Colin Thomas-Jensen. "Averting the Nightmare Scenario in Eastern Congo" Enough Project report. September 2007.
http://www.enoughproject.org/reports/congo_nightmare_20070910.php
3. Prendergast, John and Colin Thomas-Jensen. "Sudan: Opportunity in the Midst of Crisis." Enough Project report. September 2008.
http://www.enoughproject.org/Sudan_Report_September_2008
4. Prendergast, John and Julia Spiegel. "A New Peace Strategy for Northern Uganda and the LRA." Enough Project report. May 2008.
http://www.enoughproject.org/reports/uganda_lra

Wednesday, Nov. 12 – 2:30-4:30 pm (KIPJ Conference Room A)

II. Peacekeeping: how the big peacekeeping missions in Africa are failing to protect people

1. Holt, Victoria. "The Military and Civilian Protection: Developing Roles and Capacities." Stimson Center Research Briefing No.22. March 2006.
<http://www.stimson.org/pub.cfm?id=285>
2. "Putting People First: The Protection Challenge Facing UNAMID in Darfur." Darfur Consortium report. July 2008.
http://www.darfurconsortium.org/darfur_consortium_actions/reports/2008/Putting_People_First_UNAMID_report.pdf
3. Fowler, Jerry and John Prendergast. "Keeping Our Word: Fulfilling the Mandate to Protect Civilians in Darfur." Enough Project report. June 2008.
http://www.enoughproject.org/reports/sudan_darfur_civilians_June_2008

Monday, Nov. 17 – 6:00-8:00 pm (KIPJ Conference Room A)

III. Peace with justice: how the International Criminal Court helps or hurts the cause of peace in Africa

1. "Darfur, War Crimes, the International Criminal Court, and the Quest for Justice," Brookings Briefing and event transcript, February 2005.
<http://www.brookings.edu/events/2005/0225africa.aspx>
2. Seils, Paul and Mariek Wierda. "The International Criminal Court and Conflict Mediation." International Center for Transitional Justice. June 2004.
<http://www.hdcentre.org/files/ICCandconflictmediation.pdf>
3. Norris, John, David Sullivan, and John Prendergast. "The Merits of Justice." Enough Project report. July 2008.
<http://www.enoughproject.org/node/974>
4. Prendergast, John and Lisa Rogoff. "R2P, the ICC, and Stopping Atrocities in the Real World." Enough Project report. February 2008.
<http://www.enoughproject.org/reports/responsibility>

Wednesday, Nov. 19 – 5:00-7:00 pm (KIPJ Conference Room D)

IV. Building a Peace Movement: how students can help stop genocide and build peace in Africa

1. Power, Samantha. "Bystanders to Genocide," Atlantic Monthly, September 2001, pp. 84-108.
<http://www.theatlantic.com/doc/200109/power-genocide>
2. Thomas-Jensen, Colin and Julia Spiegel. "Activism and Darfur: Slowly Driving Policy Change." Fordham International Law Journal. pp.843-858
http://www.enoughproject.org/files/ActivismandDarfur_0.pdf
3. Cheadle, Don and John Prendergast. "Not on Our Watch: The Mission to End Genocide in Darfur and Beyond." Hyperion Books. May 2007.

Chapter 1: "Challenges and Choices"
Chapter 6: "Activist Beginnings and Success Stories"
Chapter 7: "The Upstanders"
Chapter 8: "Strategies for Effective Change"
Chapter 9: "Stop Mass Atrocities Now: An Agenda for Change"