

Community Standards 2014-2015

As a member of the University of San Diego community, each student is responsible for understanding and following these standards, policies, and procedures. This includes all standards, policies, and procedures in the Student Code of Rights and Responsibilities and Terms and Conditions Campus Housing and Dining Services Agreement. Students are expected to engage in responsible and appropriate conduct that reflects the University's mission.

Alcohol and Other Drugs

1. See Student Code of Rights and Responsibilities.
2. Items pertaining to alcohol/drug, including beer can/bottle/cap displays (full or empty) or alcohol/drug-related items (i.e. signs, posters, flags, etc) may not be displayed in University Housing.
3. All new students are required to complete an online alcohol, other drug, and sexual violence prevention program as designated by the Center for Health & Wellness Promotion prior to initial check in to the University's residence halls. Failure to complete this program by the established deadline will result in a $250 fine assessed directly to the student's account.
4. Students under 21 years of age may not be present in any residence hall room where alcohol is being consumed. In a room where alcohol consumption is permitted, all room doors must be closed.
5. Residents may possess prescription drug prescribed to them by a licensed health professional, but are prohibited from distribution and/or sale to others.
6. Use or possession of an illegal controlled substance (i.e. marijuana, cocaine, ecstasy, etc.) is prohibited. Medical use of marijuana is not permitted on campus.
7. Alcohol related games ("water pong", "root beer pong", "flip cup", etc) are not allowed in the residence halls.
8. Smoking and the use of any tobacco products (this includes e-cigarettes and related products) are prohibited at all times in all residence hall areas (i.e., student rooms, lounges, bathrooms, hallways, balconies, bridges, stairwells, and entry areas). Tobacco products (including e-cigarettes) may not be sold, distributed or promoted on University property. Residents who choose to smoke must maintain a distance of at least 20 feet from any openings to University buildings (this applies to e-cigarettes).

Fire and Emergency Safety

1. Every person within a building must respond to a fire/emergency alarm by immediately exiting the premises. Reentry to the premises is permitted only on the signal of authorized Residential Life, Public Safety or fire department personnel.
2. Tampering with or misuse of any emergency device (such as emergency exit door, fire rated door, rolling steel fire doors, etc) is strictly prohibited.
3. Fire hazards, including but not limited to, burning incense, burning candles, halogen lamps, exposed heating elements, personal barbecues, and flammable liquids and solvents (gasoline, kerosene, lighter fluid, propane, etc.) are strictly prohibited in or around any living area. Doors that open into exit corridors are fire rated and may not be propped open.
4. Nothing may be hung from sprinkler pipes or any part of the fire sprinkler system.

5. Storage or use of any materials requiring the use of ventilation hoods, eye wash stations, or safety showers (e.g. photograph development supplies) is prohibited.
6. Possessions may not be stored or left in any area where they may become a fire hazard or impede access and/or egress.
7. Possession and/or use of explosive materials (i.e., firecrackers of all types, dynamite or any other similar item) are absolutely prohibited.
8. In the case of an emergency or other serious incident, the University of San Diego may disclose information from education records to a parent, legal guardian, or any other person whose knowledge of the information is necessary to protect the health and safety of the student or other individuals. Each situation will be evaluated on a case-by-base basis. Some examples of health and safety incidents in which notification will occur include serious injury, an arrest, medical emergency, or any hospital transport

Furniture and Appliances

1. Theft, damage, or defacing of University property is prohibited
2. Window screens shall not be removed for any reason (minimum fine of $100 being assessed per violation). Damage to a screen shall constitute removal. Damaged screens will be repaired on a continuing basis, with associated costs passed on to the residents of the unit.
3. All floor level windows are provided with a sash lock for additional security. Damage to or loss of sash locks may result in fines to replace locks. Additional sash locks are available at all the RA Offices
4. No waterbeds, lofts or similar furnishings are permitted in housing areas.
5. Residents are not allowed to disassemble any furniture in the room (including beds, desks, dressers, etc.).
6. Beds are to be properly bunked using the bunking pegs provided by the Office of Residential Life. Beds cannot be bunked on desks, dressers or any other surface.
7. Removal of community furniture to a private room or use of common area item for personal use is prohibited.
8. Removal and/or relocation of any University furniture is prohibited from the residence hall rooms to balconies, lounges, walkways, bridges, outdoors, or storage companies. A $25 fine will be assessed for each piece of furniture outside of the residence hall room per 24 hour period, plus any additional charges for lost or damaged furniture.
9. No furniture of any kind is permitted to be outside unattended, except by approval from Residential Life staff.
10. Removal/unhinging of doors (bathroom doors, closet doors etc.) is prohibited.

2. Cohabitation within University Student Housing areas is prohibited.
3. Guests are to be accompanied by their hosts at all times.
4. Hosts are responsible for the behaviors and/actions of their guests. It is the responsibility of the host to inform their guests of applicable policies and procedures within the Community Standards and the Student Code of Rights and Responsibilities.
5. Guests who infringe upon the rights of residents may be asked to leave campus or University Housing by University Officials.
6. Guests must have a picture ID on their person at all times.

Quiet Hours and Courtesy Hours

1. Quiet hours are designated for study and sleep time from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 a.m., (Sunday - Thursday) and 10:00 p.m. to 10:00 a.m. (Friday and Saturday). Residents should show courtesy for one another at all times.
2. No television set, radio, stereo (including the bass), or other noise producing instrument may be operated at any time at a volume which is unreasonably loud in the judgment of the Residential Life staff. This includes shouting or screaming in a residence hall room, hallway, building or courtyard.
3. Electric and percussion musical instruments may be stored in the residence areas. Use of such instruments must be confined to University provided practice facilities with approval of Residential Life staff.

Room Cleanliness and Damage

1. See Terms and Conditions Campus Housing and Dining Services Agreement

2. Decorative stickers may not be applied to the walls, doors, windows, furniture or ceiling of any residence hall room.
3. Nails, screws, tacks, staples and hooks may be utilized sparingly. Holes left in the wall may be subject to repair charges. Tape and gummy adhesives are permitted but any residue left behind may be subject to cleaning charges. Painting charges may be assessed. Tape or gummy adhesives are expressly prohibited. All room repairs must be completed by University Maintenance staff (including spackling).
4. Residents are responsible for all burns, stains, or any other physical damage to floors, floor covering, furniture, window coverings or any other surfaces or fixtures in the housing area.
5. If belongings are left behind after a resident vacates a space, Residential Life may hire a moving company to pack and store the items, and the costs associated with such a move will be billed to the resident.

Room and Building Conduct

1. Students should not loan out, use, or borrow any student ID card. All students are responsible for the use of their ID card by any person. Possession/use of an illegally duplicated residence hall key/card is prohibited. Students found abusing their ID card may be subject to the Student Conduct process.
2. After 2 lockouts, students will be charged $10 for every subsequent key-in or when a temp card is issued. Failure to return temp cards within a 24-hour period will result in a $20 charge. These charges will be billed directly to student accounts.
3. Unauthorized entry/exit through windows or emergency exits is strictly prohibited.

6. Installation of an unauthorized personal lock on any door or window is prohibited.
7. It is prohibited for any student to sell, purchase, print, view or display obscene, offensive, or erotic material in a common/public area of a residence hall and/or an apartment including doors and windows. This is subject to but not limited to material obtained via the internet, pornographic pictures, jokes, written material or the use of live entertainment.
8. Respect for roommates, potential roommates, suitemates, other residents, and University officials are expected at all times. Residents are expected to always engage one another in a respectful manner despite any differences.

Room and Roommate Changes

1. All residents are required to complete a Roommate Agreement. Roommate Agreements will be kept on file with their Community Director.
2. Residents are encouraged to talk to their roommate(s) first to resolve conflicts. In cases where the residents cannot reach resolution on their own, they should consult with their Resident Assistant(s). The Resident Assistant(s) will provide options to resolve the situation. If the residents and Resident Assistant(s) cannot resolve the situation, the students will be referred to the Community Director. The Community Director will mediate and resolve the situation.

3. A room change will be the last option in cases of roommate conflict.
4. No room or roommate changes will be made during the first two weeks of each semester. Change of rooms for the Spring semester must be completed prior to departure for Christmas break if logistically possible.
5. If residents wish to change rooms, they should obtain a copy of the Room Change Request and Checklist from the Residential Life website. Failure to follow the procedures may result in disciplinary action.
6. Any open bed space(s) (which includes the desk, dresser, bed) must remain clear of any belongings. Failure to abide by such policy may result in a fine(s) or having any personal items removed by University Staff.
7. The University reserves the right to designate room assignments among residents in cases where a dispute about rights to living space occurs.

Sales, Solicitation and Posting

1. All student advertising must be approved and posted in designated areas and comply with established guidelines for display of such materials.
2. Only the Dean of Students or designee may approve sales and solicitations.
3. No commercial or private organization may post, exhibit or distribute materials unless approved by the Dean of Students or designee.
