Transfer Housing Opportunities

We are excited to have you join our USD community for Spring 2014. Residential Life prides ourselves on creating a diverse and inclusive environment. We are excited that you are eager to live in our on-campus living community. The University does not guarantee housing for transfer students, but makes every effort to house interested students as space becomes available. Please follow the housing sign-up instructions below to receive priority placement. All transfer students will be placed in on-campus housing based on their commitment deposit date. Transfer students will be placed in San Antonio De Padua Apartments, Alcala Vista Apartments, San Buenaventura Apartments, University Terrace Apartments, and Manchester Village Apartments.

Manchester Village
Continuous occupancy (including Christmas Break, Intersession and Spring Break) is available at no additional expense in Manchester Village to residents that stay for the full academic year. The design of Manchester Village responds to student requests for apartments with single occupancy bedrooms. The apartments have either four single bedrooms or two double bedrooms with shared bathrooms, living and dining areas and full-size kitchens.

San Antonio De Padua
The San Antonio de Padua (SAP) apartments are one of the housing options for the sophomore and upper class students living in the Valley. The SAP offer 41 units consisting of studios for two residents and large one-bedroom apartments for three residents. Continuous occupancy (including Christmas Break, Intersession and Spring Break) is available at no additional expense to non-freshmen residents that stay for the full academic year.

Alcala Vista Apartments
The Alcalá Vista Apartments include 192 apartments, and are located adjacent to the Sports Center Complex (gym, locker rooms, weight room, pool, and tennis courts). The majority of these units have two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a kitchen, and a living room. Each of these two-bedroom units accommodates four residents. A reception desk, laundry facilities, study rooms, wide-screen TV, lounge, and staff offices are located on the first floor of Palomar Hall.

San Buenaventura
San Buenaventura and the San Antonio de Padua (SAPs) apartments together represent the Missions Apartments, the sophomore and upper class options for living in the Valley. Boasting the latest amenities in residential life, the 92,300 square-foot hall features apartments with wireless Internet access, ceiling fans, and a full kitchen with a refrigerator, stove, and microwave. The building has many perks to offer residents. Single (limited) and multiple occupancy apartments are available in San Buenaventura.

University Terrace Apartments
The University Terrace Apartments offer a mature living environment for undergraduate students with junior or senior status. Continuous occupancy (including Christmas/winter Break, Intersession and Spring Break) is available at no additional expense to residents that stay for the full academic year. Each of the University Terrace Apartments has two bedrooms and one or two bathrooms for either three or four residents.
