To commemorate the University of San Diego's 60th Anniversary, Sister Sally Furay, R.S.C.J., USD's academic vice president and provost from 1972 to 1996, will share her reflections regarding the spirit of the founders and the impact of this spirit on the development of the university.

Sister Furay held administrative roles at USD as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and chair of the Department of English. She holds a doctorate in English and American literature from Stanford University, a J.D. degree from the University of San Diego School of Law, and has been a member of the California Bar for 36 years.

She played a key role in the corporate merger of the San Diego College for Women and the San Diego College for Men in 1972.
