

Students enrolled in USD'S MBA Program are eligible for a certificate in Nonprofit Management which may be obtained by completing nine units within the School of Leadership and Education Sciences' Nonprofit Leadership & Management Program.

The Program works as follows:

- 1) With the approval of the MBA Director, MBA students may take 6 units of elective coursework from other USD graduate programs. To receive the certificate in Nonprofit Leadership & Management students must take 9 units of which 6 will be credited towards the MBA requirements. To receive the certificate, the remaining 3 units can be taken on a 'pass/fail' basis.
- 2) Once approval has been granted, students participating in the Certificate Program must enroll in EDLD 501: Nonprofit Management Fundamentals, 3 units (this course is offered during fall semester)
- 3) After that the remaining coursework may be chosen by the student.
- 4) Tuition charged for the 6 units of coursework fulfilling the elective requirements in the MBA Program will be charged at the same rate as MBA courses. Tuition cost for the additional 3 units to complete the Certificate in Nonprofit Leadership and Management will be $500 per unit.
- 5) MBA students wishing to enter the Nonprofit Management Certificate Program do not need to complete the SOLES application process as acceptance into the MBA program fulfills admittance requirements.
- 6) At this point in time, enrollment in the Nonprofit Management Certificate Program will be limited to five MBA students annually and will be determined by the MBA Director.
- 7) For more information about the certificate program, or to receive permission to take Nonprofit Management courses, please contact the Director of Nonprofit Leadership & Management Program within SOLES, Pat Libby:
plibby@san Diego.edu