

Job Announcement

(please post)

The UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO announces a tenure track position at the rank of assistant professor in the history of religions, with specialization in contemporary Judaism or the religious traditions of China. Candidates must be willing and able to teach Introduction to World Religions (lower division) on a regular basis, as well as upper division courses in their specialty.

Applicants should hold a doctorate or anticipate its completion by the time of the appointment, September 2009. Commitment to excellence in undergraduate teaching and an active scholarly agenda are expected. The University of San Diego is a Roman Catholic university. In the Department of Theology and Religious Studies, the Catholic tradition is pre-eminent within a curriculum that is cross-cultural, ecumenical, and inter-religious. Information about the department is available at www.sandiego.edu/theo. Applications should include a letter of intent, graduate school transcripts, a graduate school dossier with three letters of reference, samples of scholarly work, and copies of teaching materials (e.g., syllabi, typical handouts, student evaluations). Please send all materials (hard copies only) to: Dr. Lance Nelson, Chair, Department of Theology and Religious Studies, University of San Diego, 5998 Alcalá Park, San Diego CA 92110-2492. Applications should be complete by October 6, 2008. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at the AAR Annual Meeting in Chicago. The University of San Diego is an equal opportunity employer and is committed by mission to creating a diverse and inclusive community.
