A Person of Impact is an individual who has had a profound impact on USD, local, and global communities through her or his dedication to feminist principles. A Person of Impact exemplifies the core values of the University of San Diego and strives to create gender equality within campus, local, and global communities.

The purpose of this program is to recognize and celebrate women and men who are examples of empowerment within our community throughout the year, in addition to the annual Women of Impact program.

Nomination:
Please explain in 250 words or less why the individual you have nominated is a Person of Impact, as defined in the preceding statement. Provide examples of specific contributions she/he has made. (Please attach on a separate sheet of paper)

Notification:
Women Center Staff and Leadership Council members will review applications at the end of each month, and collectively choose a Person of Impact for the month. The selected individual will be notified via email, and following a brief interview to discuss her or his leadership techniques, he or she will be featured on the Women’s Center website.
