Congratulations!

You have been selected to receive a University of San Diego Scholarship. This scholarship recognizes your academic achievement and your potential to contribute to the University of San Diego community, and it will assist you in meeting your educational costs. Information you submitted in the financial aid application process was used in determining your financial need for this scholarship.

A USD Scholarship may be renewed each year by meeting the following conditions:

1. You must complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by the priority deadline, as stated in the Guide to Applying/Reapplying for Financial Aid at USD.

2. Your application must demonstrate financial need, per University guidelines and your Cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) must be at least 2.00. (For the 2014-2015 academic year, your cumulative GPA will be based on your course work through January Intersession 2014. For freshmen who do not attend January Intersession, this will be Fall semester grades only). If you achieve less than a 2.00 cumulative GPA, you will not receive any USD scholarship or grant funds.

3. You must enroll for at least 12 units each semester. No scholarships will be approved for students who do not maintain at least 12 units through the USD refund period each semester.

4. The USD Scholarship you have received is the maximum amount you will receive if you qualify for renewal.

5. Since this scholarship may only be used for tuition and USD room and board, a change in living arrangements may affect the amount of the award.

Note: The amount of the scholarship may vary depending on your financial need and your eligibility for federal and state funds.

USD Scholarships are frequently made possible by funds provided to the University from private donors. If your scholarship has been made available through the generosity of a private donor, the name of the donor will appear on your Financial Aid Award.

Congratulations on receiving a USD Scholarship! May you continue to perform at a high academic level as you progress toward your educational goals.
