

Resolution 5:

Author: Tori Coleman, CAS Senator

Sponsoring Senator: Daniel Smeraldo, Residential Senator

Date: 23 April 2015

RE:Posting Policy

Whereas, the Associated Students Senate at the University of San Diego is committed to promoting and enhancing freedom of expression for the student body,

Whereas, the Associated Students Senate believes that the current Posting Policy of the University of San Diego hinders the ability of students to voice their opinion and promote their artwork, events, and involvement on campus,

Whereas, the Associated Students Senate believes that a renewed Posting Policy could enhance the spirit, pride, and activism students have at the University of San Diego,

Be it resolved, the Associated Students Senate at the University of San Diego hereby supports a rewriting of the University's Posting Policy to allow for enhanced freedom of expression on campus,

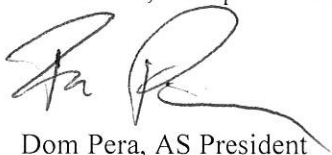

Be it further resolved, the Associated Students Senate at the University of San Diego only supports this initiative if there is student participation in the rewriting of the Posting Policy guidelines on campus,

And it be finally resolved, the Associated Students Senate at the University of San Diego asks that the Posting Policy be rewritten with student participation to be less restrictive in nature before the end of 2015.
