FUSO

- Event name: Pilipino Cultural Night 2017 (Open to Entire Student Body)
- Description: Pilipino Cultural Night is an annual play written and produced by the members of the Filipino Ugnayan Student Organization. The purpose of this event is to raise awareness about the Filipino-American culture and highlight certain struggles that could relate to the greater USD community. This year's play focuses around the topics of mental health conditions like depression and external conditions like domestic violence. The play explores different kinds of extreme challenges that students may be facing and the impact of these issues to the community around them. We would like to highlight the importance of self care and the resources around campus that helps deal with issues like these. Being one of FUSO's largest events, every year, PCN draws a larger crowd from the prior year.

Sigma Theta Psi

- Event name: Culture Shock (Open to Entire Student Body)
- Description: Sigma Theta Psi is the University of San Diego's first multicultural sorority. Since we were established in Spring 2011, we have been committed to bringing more diversity and multicultural awareness to USD's student body, overall campus, and our community in Linda Vista. As a multicultural sorority, we believe in celebrating and elevating women from all different backgrounds and cultures through education, leadership, and community service. Culture Shock is meant to be a safe space where individuals, groups and organizations are welcomed to perform and showcase their talents such as organized dancing, spoken word, song, etc. Performers are highly encouraged to engage with the audience by sharing the meaning behind their act and why it is important to them. In doing so, we hope to integrate an element of understanding and empathy through this educational process. Through bringing both the USD and surrounding community together, our aim is to raise both money and awareness for the young survival coalition and breast cancer awareness.
- Date: 4/5, 6-9pm
