You have options.
If you have been impacted by sexual or relationship violence, resources and support are available for you at any time.

Would you like to talk to someone?

YES
We are here for you. Please continue reading to see which type of resource may be best.

PRIVATE
Information shared privately with other resources as needed

CONFIDENTIAL
No information shared without express permission of the individual

OFF-CAMPUS
Services available in the greater San Diego community

CARE ADVOCATES
Available to help review your options to ensure safety, provide information about services, assist in coordinating accommodations and assist in making a report.
Routed through Public Safety; ask to speak with CARE Advocate
(619) 260-2222

PUBLIC SAFETY
Provide resources to help you feel safer on campus, including connecting you to a CARE Advocate.
(619) 260-2222

TITLE IX
Available to provide information about options for complaint resolution, facilitate an effective response, and address the way USD responds to incidents of alleged sexual misconduct and relationship violence.
(619) 260-4594
titleix@sandiego.edu

COUNSELING CENTER
Staff psychologists are available to provide emotional support to students. Students in crisis or with urgent needs can be seen immediately on a walk-in basis.
(619) 260-4655

UNIVERSITY MINISTRY
University ministers and pastoral counselors are available to support students.
(619) 260-4735

CENTER FOR COMMUNITY SOLUTIONS
Offers confidential legal services, counseling services, transitional housing, domestic violence advocacy, forensic exams and sexual assault advocacy.
1-888-385-4657

Resources in light blue indicate availability 24 hours a day, 7 days a week via phone call.