Background

Summary

I'm a senior at Berkeley, starting to look for roles in the financial industry. As an economics major, I'm fascinated by the invisible forces that shape our world. Why does one company succeed and another fail? Is it possible to predict which idea will be the next big thing?

As such, I've taken lots of microeconomics coursework and have interned with a local venture capital firm. And now I'd like to put that experience to good use, analyzing tomorrow's up-and-coming companies.

“David spent the summer with us at Berkeley Ventures and made an immediate impact. He showed us a brand new technique for firm analysis that he had just learned in school and came through with recommendations that opened our eyes to a unique set of opportunities.

We don't normally hire undergrads as interns but after working with David, we will again!

FOLLOWING UP ON A JOB APPLICATION

Dear Ms. Thomas,

I am a communications studies junior at the University of San Diego, and I recently submitted my application for the Social Media Intern position that you posted on LinkedIn. I have met with Jane Smith and John Doe, who are University of San Diego alumni working in your organization, and they both strongly encouraged me to apply. I am very excited about the prospect of contributing my work to your social media marketing campaign. If you are able to provide a timeline of when I could expect to hear updates on my application, I would greatly appreciate it. Thank you so much for your time and consideration.

ASKING FOR AN INTRODUCTION

Dear Professor Walter:

I noticed that you are connected on LinkedIn with Ms. Jane Smith, a medical device sales representative from XYZ Company. As we discussed in the past, I am very interested in exploring sales careers related to the medical and surgical devices, and I believe there is much I can learn from Ms. Smith's experience. Would it be possible for you to connect me with her? I would really appreciate your help. Thank you for considering my request.
