

What Can I do with an ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES MAJOR?

Planning and Conservation

Area

- Natural Resource Management
- Aviation/Transportation Planning
- Zoning/Building
- Land Use
- Recreation Management
- Mining
- Construction

Employers

- Federal Government Agencies
- Utility Companies
- Forestry Companies
- Indian Nations
- Oil/Gas Companies
- Land Trust Organizations
- Wildlife Ranges

Environmental Law

Area

- Political Action/Lobbying
- Regulatory Affairs
- Science Policy
- Patent Law
- Public Interest
- Environmental Law
- Mediation

Employers

- Law Firms
- Large Corporations
- Environmental Protection Agency
- Department of Justice
- Attorney General Offices
- Political Action Committees
- Non-profit Organizations

Environmental Policy

Area

- Evaluate Land Use
- Compliance of zoning and planning
- Local, state or federal environmental policy
- Environmental Advocacy
- Environmental Regulation

Employers

- Local, State and Federal Agencies
- Private Industries
- International Organizations
- Non-profit Organizations
- Consulting Firms
- Land Trust Organizations

Environmental Remediation

Area

- Liability, Audit , Compliance and Sustainability of:
- Ground/Surface Water
  - Soils
  - Air
  - Sediment

Employers

- Federal Government Agencies
- Agricultural Consulting Firms
- Environmental Consulting Firms

Waste Management

Area

- Quality Control
- Logistics
- Transportation
- Compliance
- Public Health
- Industrial Hygiene

Employers

- Federal Government Agencies
- Private Waste Management Firms
- Consulting Firms
- Non-profit Organizations

Strategies

- Consider pursuing Masters or PhD
- Seek experience in student and community environmental organizations
- Stay up to date with local and federal regulatory agencies and laws pertaining the environment
- Obtain experience through internships and volunteer positions
- Develop knowledge on land and water policies.

