

The Department of Ethnic Studies in Conjunction with the Social Issues Conference invites you to:

The 6th Annual Dr. Eugene M. Labovitz Lecture

Dr. May C. Fu

Postdoctoral Fellow
National Center for Institutional Diversity
University of Michigan

“Ethnic Studies and the Gospel of Self-Efficacy”

Wednesday, October 8, 2008 @ 6:00 pm
University Center Forum A/B
University of San Diego

May Fu's research and teaching interests include comparative histories of racialized groups in the United States, gender and labor, social movements, and women of color epistemologies. Her current book project examines the role of panethnic, interracial, and international affiliations in the development of Asian American political identities and activism during the late 1960s and early 1970s.

For info, please contact Ethnic Studies: ethnicstudies@sandiego.edu or 619.260.2514