Intersectionality, Community, and the Mission of Ethnic Studies

Wednesday, October 14, 2015

6:00pm-8:00pm

UC Forums A/B

Each year the Department of Ethnic Studies hosts the Labovitz-Perez Lecture Event, in honor of founding visionary faculty who placed serving students and community at the heart of all of their work. The lecture series features intellectuals and public scholars who, through their work, embody the spirit of Ethnic Studies that inspires us and our students. You can read more about the Lecture Series on our webpage:

This year's event will be on Wednesday, October 14 from 6:00pm-8:00pm in UC Forums A/B.

Light refreshments and reception following the lecture.

Preceding the lecture is a student workshop from 2:30pm- 3:50pm in UC Forum C.

All events are free and open to the campus community and public.
