WAYS STUDENTS ENGAGE WITH CHANGEMAKING TO ADDRESS TODAY'S URGENT CHALLENGES

ADVOCATE- Social justice in a local and/or global context

Who is an advocate? An advocate welcomes all. We advocate for the equitable opportunities for all members of our community. We advocate for our experiences and identities, and recognize the importance of awareness and action.

Advocate students will be housed in Missions A. Students living in Missions A enjoy close proximity to Missions Café and Missions Fitness Center. This housing area is located in what students call "The Valley," which is the largest residential community on campus, and home to first-year students, sophomores, and upperclassmen alike. Please note that Missions A has single, double rooms. Each floor is a suite of 8 residents, with two shared bathrooms with shower, toilet and sinks. All residents in the suite share these bathrooms, regardless of the room occupancy type.

Who is a collaborator? A collaborator pursues and values partnerships. We get out in the community and learn from one another, activating communication and participation in both our local and global communities.

Collaborate students will be housed in Maher Hall. This residence hall is located on main campus, where residents can appreciate a short walk to class. Aromas Café is located on the first floor of the building, giving students easy access to a wide range of snacks, meals, and specialty coffees and teas. Copley Library is also just a stone's throw away from Maher Hall. Please note that Maher Hall has single/double (limited), triple and quadruple rooms. Each room contains a bathroom with shower, toilet and sink, which is shared among the residents of that room (single rooms have a private bathroom, double rooms share the bathroom with those two students, etc.)

INNOVATE- Creativity is the power to see things differently.

Who is an innovator? An innovator approaches a problem with creativity and resolve. We practice social entrepreneurship that leads to positive change in the community. We let our compassion drive our curiosity.

Innovate LLC students will be housed in the Missions B residence halls. Students living in Missions B enjoy close proximity to Missions Café and Missions Fitness Center.
