

We continue to attract, retain and develop faculty who are high-impact teachers and engaged scholars, and foster a campus environment that embraces all employees as collaborators in the educational enterprise.

Office of Sponsored Programs - Support for Engaged Scholars

$10,000,000
Fiscal Year 2017 (109 Awards)

$13,000,000
Fiscal Year 2016 (85 Awards)

The University of San Diego's award-winning faculty are recognized by their peers for excellence in scholarship and research. As shown in the graphic, USD had 109 awards in fiscal year 2017 totaling close to ten million dollars and had 85 awards in fiscal year 2016 totaling over thirteen million dollars. Our community of engaged scholars encourage the integration of knowledge and research to address challenges with local specificity and global implications. The Office of Sponsored Programs is committed to providing quality service and support to the University community by assisting with concept development, potential extramural funding sources, proposal and budget preparation, and submission of innovative, high quality, competitive research proposals.