

We are working on strategies to ensure that every student and every group of students experiences their transformative potential.

Data are from USD's IRP website and include full-time first-year undergraduate students. Student groups with less than 1% enrolled in the entering cohort have been removed for statistical purposes. Selection of two or more races began in 2010; therefore, values reported are for two years instead of four years.