Letter of Solidarity

The Asian Pacific American Law Student Association of the University of San Diego School of Law strongly supports the Black Lives Matter movement, condemns police brutality, and calls for the arrest of all of the officers who murdered George Floyd. We are saddened and enraged by the anti-Black murders of Ahmaud Arbery, Breonna Taylor, George Floyd, Tony McDade, and so many others.

APALSA stands in solidarity with the USD School of Law Black Law Students Association, our Black peers and colleagues at the University of San Diego School of Law, graduate, and undergraduate communities, and the larger Black community in San Diego and the rest of the nation.

We recognize our responsibility to no longer remain silent about the systemic racism that runs rampant in our nation. We call upon the AAPI community to understand that this is the time and place to speak up and fight for the Black community.

We join the USD WLC and USD La Raza and invite other USD organizations to speak up against the injustices that the Black community have been subjected to for so long. Black Lives Matter. Black Lives Matter. Black Lives Matter. Black Lives Matter.
