I. INTRODUCTION

Externship Programs at USD Law School: General Information
The University of San Diego School of Law is committed to developing students’ practical legal skills, including written and oral advocacy, client counseling, and case management. Through the law school's practical skills training programs, including academic courses, interscholastic competition, clinical education, and field placement externship opportunities, the law school bridges the gap between (i) courses in legal theory and (ii) the practical skills and experience students need to become effective and successful lawyers.

The USD Field Placement Program offers externship placements in the following externship programs: Agency, Corporate Counsel, Corporate Tech, Intellectual Property, Judicial Externship, Law Firm Externship, and the Washington, D.C. Externship. These placements include law offices in government and nonprofit organizations, corporate legal departments, federal and state courts, and Washington D.C. federal government and nonprofit organizations. Students train under experienced attorneys, judges, and professors, learn professional responsibility and legal ethics in the real world, and build their professional network. USD's externship programs also include opportunities to provide a public service that instills in student externs a deep sense of social responsibility and a commitment to pro bono service.

Agency Externships: General Information
The Agency Externship programs include a work component and an online academic coursework component. Students work at externship placements for academic credit while enrolled in an Externship course under the supervision of a USD faculty member.

Work Component
The work component provides students with opportunities to gain hands-on practical legal experience at government law offices in civil and criminal areas of the law, nonprofit organization law offices, and corporate legal departments. The work experience enables students to engage in a wide range of lawyering skills. The student externs are assigned to work in a legal setting under the supervision of experienced licensed attorneys. The on-site field placement attorney supervisors play a critical role in the student’s educational experience. They assist student externs with understanding the professional responsibilities associated with working as attorneys and with representing clients. They also provide effective feedback on students’ written and oral work products.

Online Academic Coursework Component (including writing requirements)
The online academic coursework component of the Externship courses is offered through the online Canvas system. The coursework component includes weekly online assignments consisting of journals, discussion boards with reading assignments, and is supervised by a USD law professor. The faculty supervisor has regular contact with students through Canvas. As faculty supervisor, the professor will (i) assign, monitor and comment on student work posted online, (ii) correspond with the students individually and as a group, and (iii) review and enter scores on Canvas for student journals, discussion board postings, as well as the two final assignments--work product (produced for the externship placement) and final paper (assigned by the faculty supervisor). The faculty supervisor also will establish contact with each student's on-site placement attorney supervisor and communicate with the supervisors about the student's externship performance.

Learning Outcomes
The goal of the Externship courses is to enable law student externs to achieve the established Learning Outcomes set forth in the next section of this Manual. These Learning Outcomes were established in accordance with the American Bar Association (ABA) standards applicable to law school field placement programs.
II. USD FIELD PLACEMENT EXTERNSHIP PROGRAM INFORMATION AND SUMMARY OF AGENCY EXTERNSHIP

A. What is the Field Placement Externship Program?

The Field Placement Externship Program allows students to perform externship legal work for academic credit under the supervision of an attorney, or an individual otherwise qualified to supervise, at approved placement sites. In addition to working at a placement site, students must enroll in an externship course (graded on a pass-fail basis) designed to enhance the placement experience. Students have numerous choices to perform externship work at a wide variety of employers and in a range of practice areas. Field Placements are available for the following:

- Agency Externship (work at a government agency or nonprofit organization law office)
- Corporate Counsel Externship (work at corporate counsel law department)
- Corporate Tech Externship (work at local law firms/companies for technology companies)
- Intellectual Property Externship (work for law firms/companies for individuals, tech & media companies)
- Judicial Externship (work at a state or federal court for a judge)
- Law Firm Specialty Externship (work for a private law firm)
- Washington DC Externship (work for a gov’t., public interest, non-profit trade agency, or judge in DC)

B. How Do I Find a Field Placement for an Externship Opportunity?

Students secure their own externships, drawing from the field placements on the law school’s Approved Placement List. Alternatively, students can create their own externships, subject to faculty approval of the placement. The approved placements offer work in many different areas, including criminal and civil law, local government, civil rights, consumer protection, employment, environmental, health, housing, family, education, and regulatory matters.

Students should begin the process of locating an externship by searching in the Externship tab in the law school's #HireUSDLaw online tool. #HireUSDLaw is an online recruiting tool maintained by the Office of Career and Professional Development. #HireUSDLaw provides students with easy access to job listings, recruiting programs, job fairs, professional networking, mock interview programs and calendar. Externships posted in #HireUSDLaw generally will provide information on applying to that placement site. Students are urged to meet with an advisor in the Office of Career and Professional Development for assistance in identifying appropriate externship opportunities and to learn the process for seeking faculty approval of a placement not currently on the Approved Placement List.

C. I Found a Field Placement for Externship, What's Next?

If a government or nonprofit organization law office has accepted a student into an agency externship placement, and the student meets the eligibility requirements, the student needs to complete the online Field Placement Form and submit it online to the Office of Career and Professional Development. The Field Placement Form for Agency Externship is located at the following site: Agency Externship form. If approved, the Office of Career and Professional Development will send you an email confirmation, which you will then need to forward to the Registrar’s office to enroll for the Agency Externship course. Be sure to do this during the registration period set by the Registrar’s office to obtain academic credit.

D. Summary of Agency Externship

The Externship Program provides students the opportunity to gain valuable legal experience for academic credit on a pass/fail basis with a government agency or non-profit organization law office. Students who previously never participated in an EC are considered first-time externs at level I. Students who previously participated in an EC are considered repeat externs at level II. Students may enroll in the Externship Course and must complete sufficient externship hours during the “academic session” for a minimum of 50 hours per credit. For purposes of the Agency Externship, the “academic session” is from the official start of classes to the law school’s last day of final exams. Any externship work outside this time period may be counted towards pro bono hours, but not towards academic credit.

The number of credits shown below require the total number of externship hours indicated, as follows:

1 credit-50 hrs / 2 credits-100 hrs / 3 credits-150 hrs / 4 credits-200 hrs / 5 credits-250 hrs / 6 credits-300 hrs / etc.
1. Eligibility Requirements for an Externship
Law students, who are at the 2L and above level, may participate in an externship. Students must be supervised by an on-site licensed attorney, or an individual otherwise qualified to supervise legal externs, at the placement site. The faculty supervisor for the externship course will closely monitor and regularly correspond with students throughout the semester. The faculty supervisor, who oversees the course on Canvas, provides students weekly assignments, reviews and scores their posted answers to the assignments, corresponds with on-site placement attorney supervisors, and determines course pass-fail grades.

2. Approval of ABA Required Externship Written Understanding
In accordance with the required ABA standards, this Course Resource Handbook provides a written understanding among the students, faculty member, and persons in authority at the field placement. The purpose of the Handbook is to provide an understanding of the: (A) substantial externship lawyering experiences and opportunities for performance, feedback and self-evaluation; and (B) the respective roles of faculty and any site supervisor in supervising the student and in assuring the educational quality of the experience for the student, including a clearly articulated method of evaluating the student’s performance. The faculty supervisor will provide an Externship Written Understanding (EWU) document for approval to supervisors of each newly approved placement and to all first-time externs. (Please see a sample of the EWU in the Appendix of this Handbook.)

3. Course Requirements
The Externship course consists of a work component and an online academic coursework component, which includes writing requirements. Academic coursework requirements include the following: (i) mandatory orientation for first time participants, (ii) biweekly journals that summarize work performed; (iii) discussion board forums on legal practice topics; (iv) a three-five-page reflective paper at the end of the course; (v) a work product for professor review; and (vi) a performance evaluation completed by the on-site supervisor showing satisfactory completion of the externship work experience. Please see the Course Syllabus for a full description of the course requirements.

4. Pro Bono Service Recognition
Students working at an Externship placement may end up working more hours that what is required for them to earn their academic credit for the course, or they may work for the placement outside the “academic session” period (see Section D, second paragraph above). For example, a student who is enrolled for 3 credits in the Externship course is required to complete at least 150 externship hours during the academic session. If that student completes more than 150 hours, the student may apply to have the extra hours counted as pro bono legal services and go towards the law school's Pro Bono Service Recognition program. Information and forms about the Pro Bono Service Recognition's Policy and Process may be found at the following link in the law school's website: USD Law School Pro Bono Recognition Program

III. EXTERNSHIP LEARNING OUTCOMES
The Externship program is designed for students to enhance their proficiency level for each of the four Learning Objectives listed below. [NOTE: The opportunity for students to enhance their proficiency level related to particular Learning Outcomes will depend on each student’s type of externship work/activity experiences.]

1. Analytical Skills

2. Ethical and Professional Skills
Understanding of how to be ethical and responsible attorneys, conduct themselves in a professional manner, and fulfill their obligations to clients and society.

3. Communication Skills
Written and oral communications skills appropriate in the legal context and effective for the intended audience.

4. Legal Practice Skills
Practical and managerial skills relevant to chosen areas of practice.
IV. AGENCY EXTERNSHIP COURSE SYLLABUS – 2024 Spring Semester

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION
The Agency Externship I and II courses offer academic credit on a pass/fail basis to student externs. Hereafter, the Agency Externship I and II courses are referred to collectively as Agency Externship (AE). The AE consists of the following two components:

1. Work Component. Externship legal work/activity at a law school approved field placement (a government law office or a nonprofit organization law office) under the supervision of an attorney with the law office.

2. Academic Coursework Component (Available on Canvas System). (Supervised by the Faculty Supervisor):
   a. Externship Orientation: For first-time externs only (see Section B.3. below).
   b. Coursework Weekly Assignments: Journals/Time Logs & Discussion Board Forums (with required reading).
   c. Final Assignments: Work Product (produced at placement) and Final Paper Self-Assessment.

[IMPORTANT NOTE: There will be a required Textbook for the Discussion Board (DB) required readings. Students are to access the West Academic website and have the option either to purchase the textbook or only the designated chapters required for this course--See B.2. below about the textbook and chapters.]

The number of credits earned for the AE is based on the total number of externship hours (i.e., the combined total of externship placement and coursework hours) completed during the “academic session.” The 2024 spring semester academic session is from the start of classes Mon., Jan. 8 to the last day of the final exams on Fri., May 10. Any placement work outside this period cannot be counted towards academic credit but may count towards pro bono time.

B. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Externship Written Understanding (ABA Requirement) (For 1st-Time Externs in AE-I and New Field Placements)
   Students: Students participating in an externship must have on file with the law school an approved Externship Written Understanding (EWU) for that externship program. Near the beginning of classes, the faculty supervisor will provide first-time AE externs with the EWU form to approve and submit to the faculty supervisor.
   Field Placements: Externship field placements already have an approved EWU on file, unless it is a new field placement seeking law school approval for it to be included on the official Externship Field Placement list.

2. Required Textbook Readings from: Learning from Practice: A Text for Experiential Legal Education, 3d
   This textbook, published by West Academic, includes required reading of designated chapters (as part of the DB assignments) for this course. You can purchase the textbook OR purchase only the required chapters (identified below) by going to the following link: West Academic - Learning from Practice Textbook
   NOTE: When the site appears after clicking the above link, there will be a list of links to the textbook chapters (in no particular order). You will need to scroll through the list to find the required chapters to purchase for $6.00 each. The list’s last item is the link to the entire textbook. The entire textbook includes a 15% discount by entering Promo Code: WASANDIEGO at checkout. Applying this discount, the softbound version (listed at $120) is $102, and the eBook (listed at $90) is $76.50.    REQUIRED TEXTBOOK READING FOR DISCUSSION BOARD ASSIGNMENTS:
   AE-I STUDENTS: Students are required to read the following 8 chapters: 1, 3, 6, 7, 9, 11, 12, and 28.
   [NOTE: For future planning, if you are going to take AE-II next 2024 fall semester, see the required next set of 8 chapters below. You may want to consider purchasing the textbook in lieu of purchasing 16 chapters.]
   AE-II STUDENTS are required to read the following 8 chapters: 2, 4, 5, 15, 16, 24, 25, 26.

3. EXTERNSHIP ORIENTATION for AE-I Externs
   AE-I externs (who never did a Corporate Counsel, Law Firm Match, Law Firm Specialty, or DC externship) must attend an Externship Orientation presented by the Faculty Supervisor. The Faculty Supervisor will send to these students an email with information about the Orientation near the beginning of the semester. First-time AE students who previously completed the Externship Orientation as part of a Corporate Counsel, Law Firm Match / Specialty or DC Externship are not required to participate in another course orientation.
4. Required Externship Work Hours to Earn Course Credit
   a. The following number of course academic credits requires the number of externship work hours indicated:

      Enrolled Credits/Required Externship Hours:
      1/50; 2/100; 3/150; 4/200; 5/250; 6/300
   b. EXTERNSHIP WORK HOURS. The combined total externship hours spent on the following two course components count toward earning course academic credit:
      1) Externship Work & Activities: Includes work for your placement and time spent participating in authorized activities (e.g., activities include observing trials, attending trainings, touring a facility, etc.).
      2) Academic Coursework Component. Includes attendance at the Orientation (for first-time externs) and time spent completing Canvas online coursework assignments.

5. AE Course Components: Work Component and Academic Coursework Component
   a. Work Component (Supervised by Placement Attorney Supervisor):
      The student’s externship work at a placement must meet the following requirements:
      Externship Work and Activities
      • Students are required to perform externship work and engage in externship activities with their placements.
      • Students are responsible for ensuring they satisfy the required number of externship hours.
      Breadth of Work Responsibilities
      • Students must perform a wide range of duties and participate in/observe law related activities.
      • These may include (i) conducting legal research, (ii) writing memoranda or briefs, (iii) drafting pleadings or transactional documents, (iv) interacting with clients and opposing attorneys, (v) observing or participating in legal conferences such as client conferences, negotiation meetings or transactional closings, (vi) observing or participating in activities, such as trials/hearings, depositions, interviews, field trips, etc., and/or (vii) other law related work or activity.
      On-Site Supervision at Placement
      • A licensed attorney must supervise the student extern, or if approved by USD's Externship Academic Director, an individual otherwise qualified to supervise legal externs may be designated as the supervisor.
      Employer/Supervisor Responsibilities
      • The placement employer, through its supervisors of student externs, must provide externs with a meaningful externship experience guided by the USD Externship Program Supervisor Requirements and Responsibilities, which are included in the AE Course Resource Handbook.
      • Each student extern’s externship performance must be evaluated by an on-site supervisor on an official USD Externship Evaluation Form indicating the student’s proficiency level of externship work.

   b. Academic Coursework Component (Supervised by USD Law School Faculty Supervisor)
      1. Externship Orientation (for first-time externs—see item B.3. above)
      2. Weekly Online Assignments: Journals/Time Logs and Discussion Boards to be posted on Canvas
      3. Final Assignments: Work Product (produced at the placement) and Final Paper Self-Assessment
      Journals
      • A journal is required each biweekly period. Each biweekly period is identified on last page of this Syllabus.
      • After each two-week period, a student must post in the online Canvas system a journal that briefly summarizes each separate week for the two-week period. The time log also must be attached to this posting.
      • The journal and time log posted on Canvas are ONLY viewable by the Faculty Supervisor.
      • The Faculty Supervisor will review the journal, post a comment, and enter a score for each journal.
      Time Logs
      • Students must use the time log, which is in the form of an Excel Spreadsheet provided on Canvas, to enter their externship hours worked at their placement and time spent on Academic Coursework assignments.
      • The time log must be attached to the biweekly journal posting on Canvas.
      • After attaching the time log and submitting the journal posting, students must send the time log by email to their on-site placement supervisor as a “FYI Only.” Time logs do not need supervisor approval or signature.
      Discussion Board (DB) Forums
      • Students are required to participate in biweekly online seminar DB Forum discussions on Canvas.
      • DB postings are required regardless of whether work was performed during the DB’s biweekly period.
      • Each DB includes legal topic questions with required reading; students post their responses in the DB.
      • The Faculty Supervisor will review each student’s posted DB responses and enter a score on Canvas.
      • The posted DB responses and any DB comments are viewable by the professor AND the entire class.
Final Assignments (Work Product & Final Paper Self-Assessment)

Work Product
- Students must upload on Canvas one of their work products, which was produced as part of their work for their respective placement.
- A work product may include a legal memo, appellate brief, document filed in court (e.g., motion) that reflects legal work, or any other product that reflects legal work performed by the student extern.
- A “Work Product Supervisor Form” may be submitted in lieu of a work product ONLY if the onsite attorney supervisor prohibits an actual work product submission because of privilege or confidentiality reasons.

Final Paper Self-Assessment (See Instructions on Canvas)
The final paper is a self-evaluative reflective review of the externship experience. It must address the following:
1. Brief summary of the type of work performed during the externship.
2. Description of whether and, if so, how the student extern enhanced/developed his/her proficiency levels of the Learning Outcome performance indicators in the externship. (See Learning Outcomes in Section C below.)
3. Discussion of how the overall externship experience better prepared you for a professional legal career.
4. Evaluation of the supervision received at the placement.

C. LEARNING OUTCOMES
The Agency Externship program is designed for students to enhance their proficiency level for each of the four Learning Objectives listed below. [NOTE: The opportunity for students to enhance their proficiency level related to particular Learning Outcomes will depend on each student’s type of externship work/activity experiences.]
1. Analytical Skills
   Critical reasoning and problem-solving skills, including how to identify legal issues, do legal research, apply relevant law to facts, and effectively analyze each aspect of a case or matter.
2. Ethical and Professional Skills
   Understanding of how to be ethical and responsible attorneys, conduct themselves in a professional manner, and fulfill their obligations to clients and society.
3. Communication Skills
   Written/oral communications skills appropriate in the legal context and effective for the intended audience.
4. Legal Practice Skills
   Practical and managerial skills relevant to chosen areas of practice.

D. COURSE GRADING POLICY: This is a Pass/Fail course. To earn a passing grade, a student must:
1. Post ALL required journals (including attached time logs) and DB responses.
2. Earn at least an overall average score of 2.0 or better for journals & DB postings, based on this scale:
   1 - Does not meet requirements / 2 - Minimally meets requirements / 3 - Meets requirements
3. Time logs must show student completed his/her required number of externship hours.
4. Submit an acceptable satisfactory work product and final paper self-assessment.
5. Placement supervisor evaluation showing student proficiency level of externship work/activities at placement.
   Journal: Each journal may earn 1-3 points.
   Required DB Response: Each required DB response may earn 1-3 points.
   Voluntary DB Comments: DB comments on other student DBs may earn an additional 1-3 extra credit points.
   Final Paper & Work Product: Each final assignment is allocated a score of 1 (satisfactory) or 0 (unsatisfactory).

[DB SCORING NOTE: The “My Grades” section on Canvas shows each required DB assignment may earn up to 3 points. A student must post a required DB response to earn 1-3 points. Students may earn an additional 1-3 extra credit points (for a total of up to 6 points) ONLY if a student voluntarily posts DB comments to other student DB responses for extra credit.]

Failure to post a journal or DB response means the required assignment was not completed, which will result in a failing grade for the course. A journal or DB response must be posted even if it is a late posting.

NOTE ON LATE POSTINGS: If any journal or DB response is posted late, the score will be reduced by 1 point, and will be reduced by an additional 1 point for each additional week it is not posted after the due date, down to a minimum of 0 points. Reductions may be waived if justified by circumstances preventing a timely posting.

Scoring of Final Assignments (Work Product and Final Paper Self-Assessment)
The two final assignments are course requirements and must be submitted to earn a passing grade for the course. A score of 1 will be given for each satisfactory final assignment submitted, and a score of 0 will be given for each unsatisfactory final assignment. A 0 score for a final assignment will result in a failing grade for the course.
ONLY FOR AE-I STUDENTS

V. ORIENTATION FOR FIRST-TIME EXTERNSHIP STUDENTS

A. Required Externship Orientation

Title of Orientation: BUILDING YOUR SKILLS AND PROFESSIONAL REPUTATION

There is a required orientation for all law students enrolled for the first time in the following USD Law School Externship programs: Agency and Corporate Counsel Externships

PLEASE NOTE: Students are not required to complete this Orientation who previously already completed an USD Law School Externship Orientation for Agency, Corporate Counsel, Law Firm, or Wash.DC Externships.

B. Exceptions for Pre-Approved Justifiable Reasons Only

New externs who cannot make it on the scheduled date and time must have a justifiable reason for not being able to attend the Orientation. Students need to inform the Faculty Supervisor of the reasons why they cannot attend and must request pre-approved permission to be excused from attending. If excused, students are required to do the following:

Requirement to View Video & Prepare Written Summary if Excused from Attendance
If your absence from the Orientation is approved, you will be required to view a video of the orientation, certify in an email that video was viewed, and provide a written summary of the orientation presentation.

C. Required RSVP on Orientation Attendance

The Faculty Supervisor will notify students by email of the Externship Orientation.

One of the following three answers is required when sending the RSVP to Faculty Supervisor:
1. Student will attend.
2. Student is not required to attend because student previously attended (or viewed/listened to a recording of) a past orientation.
3. Student is required to attend but cannot attend. The reasons why a student cannot attend must be included in the RSVP. A student will be excused only for justifiable reasons. To be excused, the student must receive a reply email message from the Faculty Supervisor approving the student’s absence to be excused from attending. (NOTE: As indicated above, students who are excused from attending need to view a video of the orientation, certify that the video was viewed, and provide a written summary of the orientation.)

This orientation is important to a successful externship experience. We hope students will find the information provided at the orientation to be valuable.
VI. WHAT EXTERNS NEED TO KNOW BEFORE AND DURING THEIR EXTERNSHIP WORK

A. Confidentiality Statement

Law Student Compliance with Workplace/Client Confidentiality Rules
Attorneys and their fellow employees must observe the ethical obligations of workplace/client confidentiality rules. Confidentiality is a fundamental principle of the lawyer-client relationship and work product doctrine. The USD School of Law urges all students participating in externship placements, who may or may not have had formal training in professional responsibility at the time of the placement, to be aware of their respective placement’s confidentiality rules and any specific confidentiality policies.

USD Law Student Externs must comply with the following requirements:

- Be aware and familiar with your professional obligations at all times in the workplace.
- Be familiar and comply with your placement's confidentiality rules.
- Maintain the confidentiality of any information designated as confidential.
- Maintain the confidentiality of any information relating to the representation of a client.
- Do not disclose the identity of a client or reveal information leading to the disclosure or identity of a client without the express advance authorization of the supervising attorney.
- Where and when appropriate, redact any written work, as necessary, to preserve confidentiality.

Student externs should engage in a dialogue throughout the placement with supervising attorneys on the importance of confidentiality and the ethical implications involved in individual cases or circumstances.

Please review the following for your reference and convenience:

- California Business and Professions Code Section 6068 (e), Duties of an Attorney, the ethical obligation regarding client confidences and secrets.
- California Rules of Professional Conduct, Rule 3-100: Confidential Information of a Client

B. Tips for a Successful Externship Experience

The following are suggested tips to help you have a successful externship experience:

1. Professionalism and Civility—Building Your Reputation!

   Understanding Professionalism in the Workplace
   ✓ Working in a law office requires professionalism in how you conduct yourself.
   ✓ Professionalism includes a dedication to civility, honesty, integrity, dignity, diligence, respect, courtesy, good character, and cooperation in how you perform your work and interact with others.

   Civility in the Practice of Law—What is it?
   ✓ See California State Bar publication: Attorney-Civility-and-Professionalism [See Appendix]. Guidelines based on principles of integrity, respect, cooperation, and fair play.
   ✓ Civility means treating colleagues, clients, other counsel, the courts, and the public with dignity, decency, respect, courtesy, and candor. Civility requires attorneys to abstain from rude, disruptive, disrespectful, and abusive behavior.

2. Ethics: California Rules of Professional Conduct

   Be Aware of Following Important Attorney Duties to Clients
   - Duty of Loyalty: Avoid Conflicts of Interests.
   - Duty of Confidentiality: Protect privileged and confidential information.
   - Duty of Competence: Use legal knowledge, skill, and thorough preparation in legal work.
   - Duty of Diligence: Be prompt and zealous in completing case (or projects) to completion.
   - Duty of Communication: Inform clients of information necessary so they are able to make key decisions.
Comply with Confidentiality Rules
Familiarize yourself with your workplace rules regarding confidentiality of information. If you are not provided with confidentiality rules when you commence your work, ask your supervisor for any information about the office's confidentiality rules.

Avoid the Unauthorized Practice of Law
General Rule: Work by law office non-attorneys must be preparatory in nature. Such work may include research, investigation of details, the assemblage of data or other necessary information, and other work that assists the attorney in carrying out the legal representation of a client. All work must be supervised by an attorney and must become or be merged into the work of the attorney, so that it becomes the attorney’s work product.

Exception: Certified Law Students (Required for those who want to appear in court)
- See Cal Bar Practical-Training-of-Law-Students [See Appendix]
- See Rule 9.42 Re Certified Law Students in California Rules of Court: Title 9 Subdivision (d) of Rule 9.42 sets forth the "Permitted Activities" of certified law students. [See Appendix]

3. Enhancing Your Externship Learning Experience
- Practice good time management
- Use in-house legal resources (e.g., brief banks, legal opinion files) if available
- Participate in all field trips and tours offered by your placement
- If work includes interviewing clients/witnesses, review helpful aids prior to interviews
- Start now building a highly respected professional reputation

4. Prepare Before You Show Up
Prepare before Starting Work
Review the applicable area of law or procedural rules before you start. For example, if you are working at the Court of Appeal, review the standards of appellate review and the California Style Manual to familiarize yourself with citation form. If you are working in the bankruptcy courts, read an outline on bankruptcy law and be somewhat familiar with the basics of the Bankruptcy Code. If you are going to work in a federal district court, brush up on the rules applicable to federal jurisdiction. If you are working in a corporate law office, research recent articles about the company and its business activities.

Familiarize Yourself with the Office, Organization, or Company
Review the website about the office, organization, or company where you will be working. You may be able to learn a lot about how the office/organization/company is organized, the office staff or company executives and board of directors, the nature of its work, and much more.

Refresh on Research & Writing
Research and writing are the most important skills an extern will be expected to use. You will be expected to remember how to plan a research strategy and draft a memo. It has probably been a while since your first-year research and writing class, so you may want to review your notes from that class.

5. What to Remember about Your Research and Writing
- Develop a research strategy. That strategy should rarely begin with a term search for cases on Lexis and Westlaw, especially if the issue you are researching is new to you (and most will be). Start with treatises (Witkin or a relevant specialist), practice guides (Rutter), and digests (West).
- Outline before you begin writing. “Build” your memo or brief from there.
- Keep your writing clear and concise. Edit out unnecessary words and phrases and legalese. If you want help in this area, try Plain English for Lawyers by Richard C. Wydick.
- PROOFREAD! PROOFREAD!! PROOFREAD!!!
- Have another extern PROOFREAD for you, if possible! That second set of eyes is invaluable.
- You will be expected to produce thoughtful arguments and legal analysis. Never take shortcuts by substituting conclusion statements for careful analytic reasoning.
6. Workplace -- Good Practices

Dress for Success
That means dress in business attire that is appropriate for your placement's office environment. If you are not sure what attire is appropriate prior to commencing work, contact the office to ask.

Be Personable
Introduce yourself around. Everyone may look busy, but they are never too busy to say hello to a new person, especially someone who is friendly and eager to help.

Demonstrate Confidence
The extern with poise and confidence inspires confidence. When your supervisor talks with you about your work or your recommended course of action, be prepared to explain your position. Be articulate and firm in your convictions.

Ask Questions
Don’t be afraid to ask questions when getting an assignment. Make sure you understand exactly what is being asked of you, the meaning of unfamiliar terms, key background facts, when it is due, what research sources you might use, what form you should use, who the audience is for your work product, and anything else relevant.

Take the Initiative and Demonstrate Self-Reliance
Always try to figure something out for yourself before asking for help. But don’t "spin your wheels" for too long before letting your supervisor know you are stuck. Your time and your supervisor's and company’s time are valuable, so don’t waste it.

Be Open to Admit Something You Don't Know
Don’t pretend that you know about something when you don’t. A very important skill to have is to admit a lack of knowledge on a matter. Please tell your supervisor when you don’t know something, whether it is about the law or the facts of the case.

Always Be Prepared to Take Notes at Meetings
When your supervisor asks you to his/her office, bring a pad of paper and a pen with you. You never know when you may need to take notes in any meeting.

Arrive on Time
Your supervisor relies on you to be there when you are scheduled to start. Working late or through lunch is fine for staying on top of your work. But don't use that as a reason to arrive late unless your supervisor gives you the OK to arrive later. If you are supposed to come in at 9 am, then be sure you do so.

Focus on Work--Avoid Use of Cell Phone in Workplace
Put your cell phone away so you aren’t tempted to send or receive texts or personal calls. These interruptions are huge distractions, for you and for the office.

Submit Work by Deadline
Don't expect your supervisor to ask for your work when it’s due. You need to be sure to submit it on time. If you need extra time, be sure to communicate with your supervisor to get the OK to submit the work at a later date.

Always Ask for Work after Completing Assignments
When you finish all your pending assignments, seek out your supervisor to ask for more work.

Interact with and Support the Support Staff
Show the Support Staff the same respect you would want to be shown. Law offices work as a team, and the Support Staff is a very important integral part of the team.
7. Email Use -- Good Practices

Professional Use of Email
Treat each workplace email as an important professional communication. That means no abbreviations (“r u coming 2 the mtg?”), no emoticons, no “:)” and no “LOL”. Proofread every workplace email you send; they create as much of an impression of your writing skills as would a cover letter or formal legal memo.

Email is Not Verbal Communication
Remember---an email is not verbal communication. The email is documentation of what you said. It lives on and can be retrieved and reviewed by others years down the road.

8. Internet Use -- Good Practices

Workplace Internet is for Work
Do not use any computer at your workplace for non-work-related matters, such as shopping, social networking sites, surfing the net, etc.

Avoid Including Any Work Content on Social Networking Page
It's NOT appropriate to mention work on your social networking page. Confidentiality is critical.

Exercise Caution on What You Include on Your Social Networking Page
Just as you find out about people by searching the internet at home, you must know that your supervising attorneys, judges, clerks, and office staff do the same thing when it comes to you. Is there anything on your social networking page that may reflect negatively on you generally as a professional at your externship placement? You are a professional now.

C. Tips on Getting Started & Participating in the Online Coursework Component

When you access the Canvas page for this course, please review the left-hand column of the page. It includes several tabs providing you access to important information about this class.

1. Course Syllabus. The “Course Syllabus” tab contains the syllabus for this course. Please read the syllabus so you understand all the requirements of this course. Also, the last page of the syllabus includes a timeline listing all the course requirements, their due dates, and an identification of the Discussion Board topics.

2. Announcements. Each time you access this class on Canvas, you first should check the “Announcements” tab for each week’s new announcement I have posted on Canvas for this class. The Canvas system also will send you, via email, these announcements.

3. Course Content. The “Course Content” tab is the most important location on Canvas for this class. At this location you will find important information and materials about the class. Most importantly, this tab provides access to the folders for the required assignments (i.e., posting biweekly Journals and Discussion Board reading assignments and postings). The following folders are located in the Course Content tab:
   a. Course Information & Materials. This folder includes class forms and samples of documents you are required to submit to satisfy class assignments.
   b. Online Course Assignments. The assignments include biweekly journal postings (with an attached time log), and the biweekly Discussion Board reading assignments and posting of answers to DB questions.
   c. Final Assignments. The final assignments folder contains the following final assignments. 1) Final Paper Self-Assessment; 2) Work Product

4. Posting Bi-Weekly Journals and Time Log
   a. You must briefly summarize each week of your externship work/activities during the biweekly period. (For example, if you worked in each one of the two weeks during the biweekly period, your journal should include two separate brief summaries for each week’s work /activities.)
   b. You may type your biweekly journal directly into the space provided on Canvas OR attach a one-page document that contains your biweekly journal. Please be sure to review the instructions for composing and formatting a journal, as well as to review the Sample Journal. These instructions and the Sample Journal are included on Canvas’s “Course Information & Materials” folder. Each journal should be limited to a one-page (8.5 x 11) document, if possible.
c. You must use the Time Log document that is included on Canvas for recording your time. When you post your biweekly journal, you also must post your time log at the same time by attaching the time log to the journal posting. After posting each time log on Canvas, please send a copy of the time log to your on-site placement supervisor.

d. Posting a biweekly journal is only required if you worked a portion of any day during the two-week period for that particular journal. (NOTE: If you did not work at all during the two-week period, please post a simple one sentence statement saying you did not work. You also should attach your time log showing no hours worked for that two-week period.)

e. The scoring for your biweekly journal postings is described in the Course Syllabus.

5. Posting to the Weekly Discussion Board Forums

   a. There are several weekly DB forums for this class.
   b. The first DB is on the topic of “Introductions.” This provides you the opportunity to introduce yourselves to each other and to your Faculty Supervisor. The remaining DB forms are on selected legal practice topics.
   c. Each DB Forum will include reading assignments, as well as questions for you to post answers. You are required to post DB answers, for which you will receive a score. In addition, for extra credit, you may post a DB comment to one or more of your fellow students' DB answers. The extra credit is based on the same scoring standards applicable to the DB answers.
   d. The scoring for your biweekly DB postings, including both your DB answers/replies and your DB comments, is described below and in the Course Syllabus.

6. My Grades

   This tab on Canvas includes the scoring of your completed journals and DB postings. The scoring is based on the quality of the posting, as follows:

   1 – Does Not Meet Expectations / 2 – Minimally Meets Expectations / 3 – Meets Expectations

   Journals

   The journals you post on Canvas will earn a score between 1 - 3 points according to the scale above.

   Discussion Boards

   DB Responses. Each DB Forum includes reading assignments and questions for you to post responses. You are required to post DB responses. You will receive a score from the 1-3 points according to the scale above.

   DB Comments. In addition, for extra credit, you may post a DB comment to one or more of your fellow students' DB responses. The extra credit posting will receive a score of 0-3 points.

   IMPORTANT NOTE ON DB SCORING: While you can earn up to 6 points for each DB by posting both the DB response (for up to 3 points) and DB comments (for up to 3 extra credit points), the course requirement only is for posting a DB response that can earn up to 3 points. So, if you only post a DB response and earn 3 out of a potential of 6 points, you will have earned the maximum points for the DB requirement.

   The score is entered and tracked on Canvas showing your cumulative scoring. See the Course Syllabus for a description of the Grading Policy for this class.
VII. ONLINE ACADEMIC COURSEWORK COMPONENT: JOURNALS/TIME LOGS AND DISCUSSION BOARD FORUMS

A. Instructions for Formatting and Composing Biweekly Journals & Time Logs

1. General Instructions

Biweekly Journals (See Appendix for Sample Journal)

The coursework component includes biweekly journals. Each journal must briefly summarize each separate week of the two-week period. (Each two-week journal period is identified on the last page of this Syllabus). Each journal must be accompanied by a biweekly time log (see below for the time log requirements).

- After each two-week period, a student must post in the online Canvas system a journal that briefly summarizes each separate week for the two-week period. The time log must be attached to this posting.
- The top of each journal must include the student’s name and the externship agency name.
- The posted journal and time log are ONLY viewable by the Faculty Supervisor.
- The Faculty Supervisor will review the journal, post a comment, and enter a score for each journal.
- A student may be excused from posting a timely journal only if the Faculty Supervisor approves the request based upon justifiable reasons that prevented the drafting of a journal by the due date/time.

(Note: If no work was performed during a biweekly period, please post a one sentence statement indicating you did not work that biweekly period. This will inform the Faculty Supervisor not to enter a journal score of 0 for failing to post a required journal.)

Biweekly Time Logs (See Appendix for Sample Time Log)

- Each student must record on a time log the time spent on: (i) work/activity for your agency, and (ii) online coursework assignments for each biweekly period.
- Students must use the time log, which is in the form of an Excel Spreadsheet, provided on Canvas.
- The hours must reflect time spent on: (i) work performed for the agency, including any time engaged in agency activities (e.g., observing a court proceeding, attending a field trip, training sessions, deposition, etc.), and (ii) online coursework assignments.
- The time log must be submitted biweekly with each journal.
- After posting each time log, please be sure to send a copy of it to your on-site placement supervisor to keep him/her up to date on your completed hours. Time logs do not need a supervisor’s approval or signature.
- The time log must be uploaded online into Canvas by attaching it to the journal posting.

2. Requirements for Formatting Biweekly Journal

- Enter your name and the name of your agency at the top of your journal.
- Each biweekly journal must include a brief summary of your work and activities for each separate week of the two-week period.
- For each weekly summary, please include a heading that identifies the week of work.
- You can type your journal into the space provided for each Journal page or you can attach a document as your journal.
- Your journal should not extend beyond the space of one or two pages (i.e., page of 8.5 x 11).

3. Requirements for Composing Journal Summary

Your summary for the week should be brief, limited, and focused on the following substantive content for the types of items indicated:

Research Memo: Describe the legal subject/topic, the issue the memo will address, and the purpose you hope to achieve by the memo.

Motion (including Points & Authorities): Describe the type of motion, the legal subject matter, and the purpose you hope to achieve by the motion.
Appellate Brief: Describe the type of brief, the legal subject matter, the main issue(s) the brief will address, and what you hope to achieve by the brief.

Watching Court Proceeding: Describe the type of proceeding (e.g., jury trial, motion, etc.), the nature & purpose of the proceeding (e.g., murder trial, civil trial involving excessive force allegations against police officer, etc.), and what key portion(s) of the proceeding you observed (e.g., jury selection, opening statements, direct / cross examinations, closing arguments, etc.).

Court Appearance: Describe the type of proceeding (e.g., arraignment, prelim, motion, etc.), the legal subject matter involved in the proceeding (e.g., criminal procedure motion to suppress evidence), and the purpose of what you hope to accomplish by the appearance.

Watching Deposition: Describe the type of: (i) case associated with the deposition, (ii) deponent (e.g., witness of accident, defendant in lawsuit, etc. --- don't identify names), and (iii) what purpose is hoped to be accomplished by the depo.

Training Session: Describe the subject(s) of the training.

Field Trip / Tour: Describe where and what you went to see, as well as highlights of what you saw.

Other Types of Assignments: Your summary should focus on the substantive legal content associated with the assignment.

DO NOT include details in the journal summary that are unrelated to the substantive content of the assignment or activity.

B. Discussion Board Forums

The Agency Externship online academic coursework component includes Discussion Board (DB) Forums and required readings from the course textbook. DB Forums consist of topics assigned by the Faculty Supervisor for online student discussion and reading.

The purpose of the Forum is to have students read materials and discuss selected topics designed to assist students with gaining a successful learning experience with their externship.

Students participate in the weekly DB Forums hosted via the online Canvas system. The Faculty Supervisor includes designated reading assignments and certain DB questions for the students. Students are to read the assigned textbook material and post their responses to the DB questions. Students also are encouraged, but not required to post comments on other students’ postings. All students have access to all DB postings so they can learn from each other through the sharing of ideas and thoughts on a subject.

The real strength to the success of a DB Forum is the opportunity for students to read about the practical insights, ideas, and thoughts fellow classmates have gained from working in a wide variety of law offices. This process of learning about other work experiences at various placements may lead to students applying for externships at these other placements in future semesters.
VIII. ON-SITE SUPERVISOR REQUIREMENTS & RESPONSIBILITIES: SUPERVISION OF USD LAW STUDENT EXTERNS

The USD School of Law is extremely grateful to field placement supervisors for the valuable supervision provided to USD law school externs. For purposes of assisting supervisors with the supervision of USD law student externs, this document includes the externship site supervisor requirements and responsibilities.

1. Primary Purpose of Externship is Educational. The primary purpose of the USD Agency Externship Program is educational for law student externs to earn academic credit toward their J.D. degree. Therefore, the law student extern must be the primary beneficiary of an educational work experience in the externship work arrangement with the placement, regardless of whether the placement provides a paid or unpaid externship for the student.

2. Designated Supervisor - Licensed Attorney. The externship placement must designate a licensed attorney as the supervisor of an extern. This supervisor is responsible for the overall supervision of the extern’s work/activities and must be available to the extern and the USD faculty supervisor for consultation. This does not preclude externs from working for other attorneys in addition to the designated supervisor.

3. Establishing Work Schedule. Supervisors need to work with externs to establish a work schedule. While the schedule should be consistent with the needs of the externship placement and supervisor, it must be designed to satisfy the extern's required number of hours and not conflict with the extern's class schedule.

4. Placement Externship Orientation. The placement should provide an orientation for the externs at the beginning of the externship designed to give a helpful perspective of what the externship experience will involve and what the office expectations will be of the externs.

5. Diversity of Assignments/.Tasks. Supervisors should assign externs work/activities that include a variety of legal subjects and require the use of a broad range of lawyering skills for the extern to develop.

6. Assignments. The externship work assignments are to include the important basic tasks of legal research, legal analysis, and legal writing, as well as a variety of other legal related work. In addition, it is strongly encouraged to have students prepare legal research memorandums, draft or assist in drafting legal documents (e.g., declarations, petitions, motions, etc.), observe legal proceedings (e.g., court hearings/trials, depositions, negotiations, etc.), and if possible, appear in court if the student is certified. Supervisors are required to assign externs substantive legal work appropriate to the extern's abilities, including clear expectations and deadlines. Supervisors need to be aware of an extern's workload and provide on-going guidance, if needed, for managing and prioritizing the workload.

7. Feedback. Supervisors are required to provide externs with specific, individualized, timely, and constructive verbal and/or written commentary on their work. Supervisors are encouraged to focus on such issues as the difficulty of the assignment, the persuasiveness and clarity of the work product, areas for needed improvement and where the extern excelled. The overall objective should be educational so the student extern may achieve a valuable learning experience.

8. Establish Weekly Conferences with Externs. Supervisors should establish regular conferences with externs at least once a week. The learning process is greatly enhanced when externs are able to meet individually or virtually with their supervisors at least once a week to review current work, address any issues or concerns, and discuss future assignments. If a weekly "standing appointment" is scheduled to meet with externs, it is likely that the grind of daily work will not prevent meetings with the externs.

9. Attendance at Training Sessions. Supervisors are encouraged to have externs attend training sessions offered by the externship placement, including any MCLE presentations, if appropriate.

10. Observation of Legal Proceedings. Supervisors should provide externs opportunities, where and when possible, to observe court proceedings, client/staff/strategy meetings, and other appropriate legal proceedings/activities, such as depositions, negotiations, client/witness interviewing, etc.

11. Certified Law Student Courtroom Experience. Supervisors should provide externs, who are certified law students, opportunities to appear in court proceedings, where and when possible and feasible.
12. Opportunities for Reflection. A supervisor should provide externs with opportunities to meet and discuss their observations, experiences, and other issues relevant to the legal profession with him/her, other attorneys, and staff in the externship placement.

13. Supervisor Contact with Faculty Supervisor. Supervisors are encouraged to contact the Faculty Supervisor about any questions or concerns with the Externship Program, as well as to discuss specific matters involving an individual extern. Supervisors must contact the Faculty Supervisor immediately to discuss any extern issues or concerns that may jeopardize the continuation of an extern's work.

14. Supervisor's Evaluation of Extern Work Performance.
   - Supervisors must complete a USD evaluation form, entitled “Evaluation of Student Extern’s Work Performance,” at the end of the externship. (The Faculty Supervisor will provide the Evaluation Form to the Site Supervisor prior to the end of the externship.)
   - Review and discuss the completed evaluation with the extern.
   - An extern’s overall performance must be at least satisfactory for the student to earn a passing grade.

IX. Evaluation of Student Extern Work Performance (Evaluation Form in Appendix)

Upon the completion of a student extern's work performance, the on-site supervisor at the field placement is required to complete an evaluation of the extern's work performance. The USD Faculty Supervisor provides the Evaluation Form to the on-site supervisors for completion. (See the Evaluation Form in the Appendix.)

An on-site supervisor's evaluation of externship work performance is a valuable tool for measuring whether the externship work experience achieved the program's learning outcomes. For this reason, the evaluation serves as one of the academic standards for a student to earn a "Pass" as the final grade for the course. For a student to be considered for a "Pass" as the final grade, the evaluation must indicate an overall externship performance that is minimally satisfactory or better.

Jane Doe
City Attorney’s Office

WEEK 1 (Mon., Jan. 8-14)
My first week of work at the City Attorney's Office went very well. The externs were provided an orientation covering what will be expected of us this semester. The orientation consisted of a description of the type of assignments that will be given to us, a review of confidentiality rules and expectations, an explanation of the various research tools the office provides, along with a variety of other administrative matters.

During the week I already had the opportunity to work on the following two assignments:

Research Memo on Calif. Public Records Act
ISSUE: The issue is whether any legal exemptions apply to a public records act request the city received for certain materials.
PURPOSE: The purpose of the memo is to research and analyze the law to determine if any of the public records requested are protected by statutory exemptions under the Calif. PRA.

Observed a Court Hearing on a Motion
LEGAL SUBJECT: Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff’s Civil Complaint against City
ISSUE: The issue was whether the plaintiff complied with the City's Claim requirements prior to filing his lawsuit for damages alleging city employee on official business caused auto accident. I was able to watch the attorneys on both sides make their arguments on the motion.
PURPOSE: The purpose of the hearing was for the court to determine whether to dismiss the plaintiff’s civil complaint for damages against the city.

WEEK 2 (Mon., Jan. 15 – 21)
I felt much more comfortable and at ease during my second week of work. I had the opportunity this week to attend a couple court proceedings and observe deputy city attorneys in court. I also worked on my two legal memos from last week.

Memo on Calif. Public Records Act
See above. I was able to complete my memo on the public records act assignment and submitted it to my supervisor during the week.

[NOTE TO EXTERNS: Never include “See Prior Journal” as a substitute for an assignment summary.]

Training Session on Federal Civil Rights Violations
LEGAL SUBJECT: Federal Civil Rights Violations
ISSUE: N/A
PURPOSE: The purpose of this training was to familiarize the law clerks with the types of federal civil rights violations the city attorney’s office defends in court.

Research Memo on Land Use Matter
LEGAL SUBJECT: City Land Use Matter
ISSUE: The issue is whether the city's municipal ordinance provision on conditional use permits allows a property owner to make certain changes to her property.
PURPOSE: The purpose of the memo is to advise the City's Land Use Department on whether it is legally authorized to issue a permit to the property owner. As of the end of this week, I was still conducting research on this assignment.

I also completed my research on the land use assignment and have been drafting the memo. I hope to complete the drafting of the memo sometime next week.
