CELEBRATING THE 45-YEAR LEGACY OF
THE CENTERS FOR PUBLIC INTEREST LAW
& RETIREMENT OF FOUNDER
PROFESSOR ROBERT C. FELLMETH

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 2
10:30 A.M. - 1:30 P.M.
KROC INSTITUTE FOR PEACE & JUSTICE

After 45 incredible years at the University of San Diego School of Law, Bob Fellmeth is retiring from his position as the Price Chair in Public Interest Law and the Executive Director of the Centers for Public Interest Law (CPIL), including the Consumer Protection Policy Center (CPPC), the Children's Advocacy Institute (CAI), and the Energy Policy Initiatives Center (EPIC).

We are delighted to invite you to a special brunch and program on Sunday, February 2 at 10:30 a.m., followed by a champagne toast, celebrating CPIL's 45th anniversary and Bob's remarkable career and upcoming retirement. This event will be an opportunity to honor Bob's legacy and the impactful work of CPIL in advocating for children, youth, and consumers over the past four decades.

In addition, we invite you to join Bob and Julie Fellmeth in contributing to the future of CPPC and CAI through the Nancy D'Angelo and Jane Fellmeth Public Interest Advocacy Endowment. This Endowment, named in honor of Bob and Julie's mothers, will provide a lasting source of funding to support research, public education, impact litigation, and advocacy efforts at the state and federal levels.

Your contributions to the Endowment will ensure that CPPC and CAI continue their vital work to protect vulnerable populations for generations.
