Jazmine Gelfand is a special education attorney who has been practicing privately in San Diego County for 9 years. A graduate of USD School of Law, Gelfand was active in various organizations, including Advocates for Children and Education (ACE), The Children’s Clinic of the Pro Bono Legal Advocates (PBLA) and the Education and Disability Clinic. Her office is dedicated to zealously representing children with disabilities and their families, through a collaborative and results-oriented approach.