

Summer Stech, Esq.

Summer Stech is a special education attorney practicing privately in San Diego County. She is also an Adjunct Professor at San Diego State University (SDSU) where she most notably developed course curriculum for graduate level coursework in the area of special education law.

Stech was also the National Program Director/Legal Advocacy Coordinator for Talk About Curing Autism (TACA) as well as a Program Specialist for the Coronado Unified School District and Staff Attorney/EJW Fellow at the Legal Aid Society of San Diego, Inc. Stech was an Instructor for USD's Special Education Advocacy Certificate Program (now SELAS), as well as a Special Education Teacher for the San Diego Unified School District, where she specialized in inclusion. She also received several honors during her law school education at USD, including the James A. D'Angelo Outstanding Child Advocate Award, Best Oral Advocate, the Entering Evening Grant and an Equal Justice Works Fellowship.