COLEY LIBRARY AT UNIVERSITY OF SAN DIEGO PRESENTS

VIRTUAL Digital Initiatives Symposium 2022
April 25–26
The University of San Diego’s Copley Library is excited to announce its eighth annual Digital Initiative Symposium. We have developed a dynamic virtual event. We hope to see you there!

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Workflow is the New Content
- Lorcan Dempsey, Vice President, Membership and Research, Chief Strategist – OCLC

What Does it Mean for Intellectual Freedom When our Library Vendors are Data Analytics Companies?
- Sarah Lamdan, SPARC Senior Fellow, Professor of Law – City University of New York School of Law

Stepping Back to Move Toward a More Equitable Future for Digital Library Users and Workers
- Jennifer Ferretti, Digital Library Federation (DLF) Senior Program Officer at the Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR) and founder and principal of We Here, LLC

FEATURED SPEAKER

Copyright and Access in the Remote Digital Era
- Kyle K. Courtney, Copyright Advisor, Harvard University

Planning and Managing for Digital Projects in Libraries and Archives
- Dinah Handel, Digitization Services Manager, Stanford Libraries

You Got Your Scholarly Communications in My Information Literacy! Teaching New Concepts and Mindsets in Library Instruction Programs
- Lisa Janicke Hinchliffe, Professor/ Coordinator for Information Literacy Services and Instruction – University Library, University of Illinois at Urbana–Champaign

Evaluating Publisher Open Access Agreements
- Allison Langham-Putrow, Ph.D. Scholarly Communications and Engineering Liaison Librarian, Research Services Coordinator – University of Minnesota, Walter Library

Basic Cataloging with RDA Post-3R
- Luiz H. Mendes, Cataloging Coordinator, California State University, Northridge & Adjunct Faculty, UCLA Department of Information Studies

SEE THE PROGRAM SCHEDULE
https://digital.sandiego.edu/symposium/2022/
CLICK HERE TO REGISTER!