

Half Time Sample Schedule

Thursday, January 24

- 5:30 pm Gather & Welcome
- 5:45 pm Keynote speaker: Joseph McKellar
Joseph is a USD alumni who currently serves as the Co-Director of Pico California in Los Angeles. As he shares his own journey, Joey will address vocation, how to participate genuinely in community, and how to pursue a path that brings you and others joy.
- 6:30 pm Alumni Dinner (hear from & meet with USD alumni across fields)
- 7:45 pm Conversation & Reflection on Vocation
- 9:00 pm Conclude

Friday, January 25

- 9:00 am 4x4 Breakfast with Professors (Each professor shares their journey for 4-5 minutes. Students split into tables to talk with them further). Potential fields represented:
- a. Entrepreneurship or Leadership
 - b. Business
 - c. Social sciences
 - d. Humanities
- 10:30 am Community Engagement: The Dojo (City Heights)
We'll visit & hear from entrepreneur and teacher Carlos McCray, who founded the Dojo. The Dojo's mission is to create cafes designed by and for underserved communities that serve ethnically diverse drink and food, where local residents can congregate, show off their talents, network, grow, advance social good, and develop social capital within the community. The Dojo's target audiences are millennials, minorities and diverse cultures to address the lack of safe, culturally reflective, and productive spaces.
- 12:30 pm Return to campus
- 1:00 pm Lunch followed by break time
- 2:00 pm Employer Presentation (a local employer shares what he/she looks for when hiring)
- 2:30 pm Breakout Sessions:
- a. Post-graduate service
 - b. Networking 101
 - c. Choosing a Major
 - d. Study Abroad
 - e. Relationships
- 3:45 pm Snack Break
- 4:00 pm Career Development Presentation: Clifton StrengthsFinder
- 5:00 pm Dinner
- 6:00 pm Closing conversation & Reflection
- 7:00pm Conclude