

Economics Degree (BAE)

Outcome Name	Outcome
Knowledge of economic theory and its application	Students will acquire a) knowledge of general economic theory; and b) the ability to apply economic theory in the analysis of problems or issues.
Written and oral communications skills	Students will be able to a) write assignments that are coherent, organized, concise, grammatically correct and well presented; and b) present oral presentations that are coherent, organized, concise, engaged and well presented.
Skills needed to critically analyze information	Students will be able to a) identify a problem; b) gather & analyze relevant data; and c) identify and evaluate solutions.
Skills need to utilize and leverage technology within the economic community	Students will be able to a) identify various computer applications to engage in quantitative analysis; b) use various computer applications to perform statistical analysis; and c) use technology to assess economic literature and data.
Skills to make ethical decisions	Students will be able to a) identify ethical issues involving potential misuse of data; and b) distinguish ethical and unethical use of data.