

Major – Supply Chain (BSCM)

Outcome Name	Outcome
Knowledge of Supply Chain models and its application	Students will have knowledge of supply chain models, strategy, and design.
Written and oral communications skills	Students will be able to a) write assignments that are coherent, organized, concise, grammatically correct and well presented; and b) present oral presentations that are coherent, organized, concise, engaged and well presented.
Skills needed to critically analyze information	Students will be able to a) identify a problem; b) gather and analyze relevant data needed to address the problem; and c) identify and evaluate solutions.
Skills need to utilize and leverage technology prevalent within the business community	Students will be able to a) use technology as a means of communication; and b) use various computer applications to analyze business problems.
Ethical attitudes and values	Students will be able to a) Identify appropriate values in a given context; b) describe appropriate professional responsibilities; and c) distinguish ethical from unethical behavior.