

Master's of Business Administration (MBA)

Outcome Name	Outcome
Advanced Business Knowledge	Students will have advanced knowledge in each of the seven core business knowledge areas. (Accounting, Finance, Marketing, Operations/Supply Chain, Statistics, Economics and Management)
Applied Management Skills	Students will be able to apply core technical skills and decision models to establish an action plan and manage a process to a successful conclusion.
Business Communication Skills	Students will have expanded business writing and business presentation skills.
Critical Analysis Skills	Students will be able to analyze, research, and use critical thinking skills to make appropriate business decisions.
Interpersonal Skills in Diverse Environments	Students will have enhanced interpersonal skills to function effectively in diverse work environments.
Standards of Ethical Behavior	Students will be able to critically assess, evaluate and communicate the ethical and social implications of organizational decision-making.