

Master's in Accountancy (MACC)

Outcome Name	Outcome
Advanced Accounting Knowledge	Students will have expanded accounting measurement knowledge in a specific field of accountancy.
Applied Accounting Skills	Students will have expanded skills to apply in financial accounting, controllership/systems, financial planning, or taxation.
Business Communication Skills	Students will have expanded business writing and verbal communication skills.
Critical Analysis Skills	Students will have expanded knowledge to critically analyze financial information in new and unfamiliar circumstances using professional research, decision-modeling, or risk-analysis techniques as the basis for appropriate decision-making.
Interpersonal Skills in Diverse Environments	Students will have expanded leadership and interpersonal skills for diverse work environments.
Standards of Ethical Behavior	Students will have expanded knowledge of the ethical attitudes, values, and professional responsibilities required of those in the accountancy profession.