

Master's in Supply Chain Management (MSCM)

Outcome Name	Outcome
Advanced Supply Chain Management Knowledge	Students will develop their knowledge of supply chain theories, concepts and tools within a strategic context.
Applied Supply Chain Management Skills	Students will be able to demonstrate how supply chain management can deliver a competitive advantage in their own organization and across a range of practice-based situations.
Business Communication Skills	Students will have expanded business writing and business presentation skills.
Critical Analysis Skills	Students will be able to critically analyze information in new, unfamiliar and complex circumstances to make appropriate decisions.
Interpersonal Skills in Diverse Environments	Students will have enhanced interpersonal skills to function effectively in diverse work environments.
Standards of Ethical Behavior	Students will understand professional ethical responsibilities and standards for the management of global supply chains.