Outcome Name | Outcome
--- | ---
Communicative Proficiency | Majors can communicate in the target language in the four basic communicative skills at the advanced level according to the ACTFL Proficiency Guidelines.

Critical Thinking | Majors can critically analyze a text, define a position, and substantiate it using thorough research techniques, the integration of disparate areas of knowledge, and innovative thinking.

Intercultural Competence | Majors have the capacity to interact appropriately and effectively within diverse social and culture contexts in the target language speaking world. They can formulate complex questions about the target cultures and articulate answers to these questions that reflect multiple cultural perspectives.

Knowledge and Understanding | Majors can contextualize and cogently explain the significance of a representative selection of figures, texts, and tendencies in the literature and other forms of cultural production from the target language-speaking world.

Assessment Measures
Student learning in the Italian BA program is assessed using direct measures, such as: course/program examinations, research papers, standardized examinations, or capstone assignments/projects. Collectively these measures allow us to determine the level and quality of education attained by our students.
