Plugging in FAQs

How do I use a Blink charger?
Hold your Blink InCard against the reader symbol under the touchscreen. Enter your billing zip code when prompted. Once your zip code is authorized, plug the charger connector into your vehicle’s charge port. Follow the on screen instructions to begin charging. Ensure that the charging lights in your vehicle are lit.

How do I end my charging session?
To end your charging session, press the lock release button on the connector, and unplug it from your vehicle. Return the connector to the cord reel on the charger.

How do I charge if I don’t have a Blink InCard?
You will be able to charge as a Blink Guest. Select Guest Access through the charger’s touchscreen or visit blinkcode.com to receive your Blink Code to activate any Blink charger.

How do I get a Blink InCard?
To order a Blink InCard, go to blinknetwork.com to sign up for a Membership and request an InCard.

How do I activate my Blink InCard?
Activate your Blink InCard by visiting your Membership portal on blinknetwork.com. Navigate to My InCards to activate your card.

How much does it cost to charge up at a Blink Level 2 charger?
Charging at Blink Level 2 chargers costs between $1-$2 per hour based on your membership preference.

How much will my EV charge in one hour?
Depending on your EV’s onboard charger, your vehicle may gain approximately 11 miles (3.3 kw/h onboard charger) or 22 miles (6.5 kw/h onboard charger) in one hour.

What should I do if a non-electric vehicle is parked in a spot designated for EVs?
If a non-EV is parked at a space designated for EV charging, politely inform the store managers. They may be able to assist in moving the vehicle. Also, try leaving a courtesy notice on the vehicle to help advocate keeping these spaces open to EVs.

What is the wattage of the Blink Pedestal and Wall Mount chargers?
The Blink Pedestal and Wall Mount chargers are both 240 volt/30amp charging stations.

Who should I contact if I need help or have questions?
The Blink Support Center is available 24/7 at 888.998.2546 or support@blinknetwork.com. Also, Blink’s online community BlinkShare is available for sharing questions and curiosities at blinknetwork.com/share.