

External Funding Opportunities

To learn more about relevant external scholarships and eligibility requirements please click the following links:

Aga Khan Foundation

For citizens of Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Canada, Egypt, France, India, Madagascar, Mozambique, Kenya, Kyrgyzstan, Pakistan, Portugal, Syria, Tajikistan, Tanzania, Uganda, United Kingdom, and United States.

Armenian General Benevolent Union Scholarships

For students of Armenian descent.

Armenian International Women's Association Scholarship

For women of Armenian descent.

Bakala Foundation Program Scholarship

For citizens and permanent residents of the Czech Republic.

The Bognár Family Hungarian Scholarship Fund

For citizens of Hungary.

Bolashak Scholarships

For citizens of Kazakhstan.

Citadel Capital Scholarship Foundation

For citizens of Egypt.

DAAD Scholarships

For citizens of Germany.

Dorothy Marchus Senesh Fellowship in Peace and Development Studies

For women from developing countries.

El-Hibri Foundation Peace Education Scholarship

For graduate students committed to the field of peace education and conflict management.

Francola Scholarship Fund at The San Diego Foundation

Need-based scholarship for undergraduate or graduate female students with interest in global activism (as evidenced by community service and school activities) who will major in international relations, public policy, political science, philanthropy, peace studies or related fields.

Fulbright Scholarships

For non-U.S. citizens.

G.I. Bill Education Benefits

For U.S. veterans and their dependents.

Gordon Watson Scholarship

For students with a degree in theology from a New Zealand university.

Inlaks Scholarships

For citizens of India.

International Education Center - International Master's and Doctoral Degree Program

For citizens of Georgia.

JCCs of North America Graduate Scholarship Programs

For North American students with Jewish heritage.

Joint Japan/World Bank Graduate Scholarship Program

For citizens from developing countries.

OFID Scholarship for International Students

For citizens of developing countries excluding OFID member countries (Algeria, Ecuador, Gabon, Indonesia, Iran, Iraq, Kuwait, Libya, Nigeria, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates, and Venezuela).

Prospect Burma Scholarships Program

For citizens of Burma.

Rotary International Global Grants

For individuals from countries with Rotary clubs.

Vahan Adjemian Scholarship

For students of Armenian descent.

World Wide Studies Fund

For citizens of Ukraine.