

Procurement Services Newsletter

USD Marketplace: Coming Soon! The Procurement Services department is collaborating with Unimarket to bring the USD community the USD Marketplace. Unimarket is a multi-tenant, SaaS-based source to settle solution, designed for ease of use by a diverse range of buyers across decentralized institutions, while also providing robust functionality for the needs of the procurement department. There are no restrictions on the number of users, suppliers, transactions or spend going through the system.

USD Marketplace is the University of San Diego's eProcurement solution that aims to simplify the purchasing and payment processes at the University. The USD Marketplace is currently limited to "credit card only" so you must use your USD issued credit card on all purchases except for Amazon and McKesson.

Procurement Strategic Development Working Group

The University has convened a working group to undertake a comprehensive review of procurement improvement opportunities across the university with a focus on efficiency, compliance, and cost reduction. Endusers from various departments will get together every 3 weeks to work together on key strategic priorities taking into account the current environment and future needs.

New Contracts

Omnia Partners has launched a new Janitorial Contract in partnership with the UC System. Under this contract University partners receive 2% cash back on dollars spent and an additional 3% when purchasing sustainable items. For more information or to learn how to order please contact the procurement department.

EACH MONTH USD WILL BE PLACING THE SPOTLIGHT ON ONE OF OUR SMALL BUSINESS VENDORS

OUR JANUARY SPOTLIGHT IS ON XULA MEXICAN COFFEE

Xula Mexican Coffee was founded in 2017 by Nelida Garcia where she combines passion and culture to produce specialty products. The beginning of Xula started in Garcia's own kitchen with her homemade muffins. After years of hard work and collaboration, the business has since expanded to provide a variety of products including specialty Mexican coffees, artisan chocolates, and baked goods such as muffins. You will experience all that Xula is- passion, culture and quality.
