

Live On Campus: The Apartment Community Experience

“I love living in the Vistas. It feels like I’m off campus, but on campus in my own little oasis. I was able to pick my own roommates this year which was a huge plus. The community feels like a family.”

- Ashley, Alcala Vistas resident

- Approximately 70% of first year students have elected to live in on campus apartments.
- All upper-class housing includes a fully furnished, apartment with single or multiple person bedrooms.

“My favorite part of being part of the Manchester community is the possibility to get involved in many ways. It's the perfect balance between independent adult living and resources for academic, spiritual, and personal growth.” – Cynthia, Manchester resident
