Many unsheltered persons in our community are regularly cited, fined, or even jailed for performing life-sustaining activities (sleeping, eating, sitting, and more) in public spaces. Join us for a conversation with a lawyer at a statewide nonprofit legal organization to discuss how local laws and ordinances impact unsheltered persons' daily lives.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25
12:15-1:00PM  |  SLP 320
- LUNCH PROVIDED -