Honoring our GIIFTS:

Gender
Indigenous Identities
Fluidity
Two-Spirit
Sexualities

Fluidity of Identities in Indigenous Communities

This conversation brings Indigenous scholars from the United States and Canada together to reflect on the cultural, social, historical, and current impact of colonization on identity fluidity present in Indigenous communities.

Mon. February 27th 4-6 PM
KIPJ PEACE AND JUSTICE THEATRE

Reception to Follow 6-7PM KIPJ Rotunda

Sponsored by USD Center for Inclusion and Diversity, College of Arts & Sciences, Ethnic Studies Department Office of the Tribal Liaison, United Front Multicultural Center, Women's Center Women's & Gender Studies Program, Kroc School of Peace Studies, Associated Students